My family like any other family has too many names and stories to mention in this short report. This is a brief description of my great grandparents down to my parents.

My only living great grandparent is Mrs. Annie Davis. Her late husband was Mr. Elliot Davis.

She was born and raised in Fairfield county, and a housewife with 11 children. She was born September 3, 1913. Her husband was born May 26, 1893 and died November 28, 1950. He worked as a carpenter and was buried at St. John Baptist Church in Winnsboro. One of their 11 children is my grandmother, Mrs. Elsie Davis Seibles. She was born October 14, 1932. Her husband, my grandfather was born October 11, 1930. They were both born and raised in Fairfield county. They were married December 4, 1952. My grandfather's name is Melvin Seibles Sr. They had 4 children, Mercedes, Joyce, Melvin Jr and Kenny. Their oldest child Mercedes is my mother, who was born June 7, 1952.

My grandmother's mother was Mrs. Lettie Hall. She was born and raised in Fairfield. She was born in October 1900. She was married to Mr. Ed Hall. They had 12 children including step-children.

One of their daughters was named Essie Mae Johnson, she is my grandmother. She married Robert Ashford in 1948 and had 2 children Robert and Luanne. Her husband died in January of 1957. My grandmother was remarried to Leroy Bell in 1959. He already had two children. The oldest of the 4, Robert is my father.

My father Robert and my mother Mercedes met in 1972. They were married in January of the next year. They have been married for almost 21 years. They have 4 children Jenee, Machita, Kevin, and Justin. We still live in Fairfield County today.
