

Rev. Quincy Pringle & Michelle Ashford

Mr. James and Evangelist Mary L. Brown of Winnsboro proudly announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter Michelle Renee Brown Ashford to Rev. Quincy D. Pringle, the son of Mrs. Geneva and the late Isiak McDaniel of Sumter.

The bride-elect is a 1990 graduate of Fairfield Central High.

The groom-elect is a 1985 graduate of Mayewood High School and is employed with Carpet Max and R & J Janitorial.

The wedding is planned for June 5 at 4 p.m. at St. Matthews First Baptist Church.

lasting impact on someone's life.

Barbara Harmon is living that type of retirement as Director of Scholarships for Fairfield Central High School.

Although she retired in 1990, after devoting 30 years to teaching college preparatory English and creative writing in Fairfield County, her work was not quite done.

"After I retired, the Fairfield County School Board asked me to come back and work for the county as a scholarship director," Harmon said. "I said I would for one year; but, as you can see, I'm still here."

A Winnsboro native, Harmon is a graduate of Newberry College, where she majored in English and history.

Harmon began her teaching career in Saluda County, at the age of 21.

"It was a little awkward at first, because I was just two years older than some of my

School's

Haldrico Evans; Kenthesha Evans; La'Paige Evans; Janise Elgin; Jarvis Feaster; Kayla Feaster; Kristin Gambrell; Donald Gladden; Adrianna Gladney; Carrie Glisson.