

Nathaniel Ashford Jr.

WINNSBORO - Nathaniel Ashford Jr., 71, died Friday, March 13, 1998 at Fairfield Memorial Hospital of Winnsboro.

Services conducted by the Rev. Van B. Fore were held Wednesday, March 18, 1998 at St. Mark Baptist Church. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Born in Winnsboro, he was the son of the late Nathaniel Sr. and Ollie M. Johnson Ashford. He was a member of St. Mark Baptist Church.

Surviving are his two sisters, Berletta Jones of Columbia and Robbie Walker of Winnsboro; and one brother, Lawrence Ashford of New Jersey.

Russell-McCutchen Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

would wait for SCANA to give them more information.

In other news from the council meeting Tuesday:

- Winnsboro will lease to own a new street sweeper for $147,000. The town entered a contract with Craigie Incorporated Government Finance to lease the sweeper, made by Vacall Vacuum.

McMaster told employees who will use it, "Keep the town clean. The Lord will wash it because He can do it with the rain. But you can sweep it."

G NOTICE

impregnable.

The Navy liked this idea so much they built an Aegis of their own. The modern Aegis, found on several types of Navy ships, is a sophisticated radar system that can detect enemy