Fairfield Central High School's Lady Griffins kept in shape over the Christmas Holidays.

The Lady Griffins, along with teams from seven other high schools participated in the Lewisville Invitational Tournament held at Lewisville High School in Chester County from Dec. 26-28.

"This was a great chance to play during the holiday season and stay ready for the season," Fairfield Central girls basketball Head Coach Jerry Jackson said.

The Lady Griffins crushed the Chester Lady Cyclones 56-26 in the first round of the tournament. In Friday night's second round, Fairfield Central defeated Bishopville 52-37.

The Lady Griffins came back to play for third place runner up in the tournament Saturday afternoon, but fell to Fort Mill 40-33. Lancaster High School placed first in the tournament.
