Marks in the County of Craven South Carolina Miller being sick in Body and weak also, but of perfect Mind and Memory Thanks be given unto God, calling unto mind the Mortality of my Body and knowing that it is appointed for all Men Once to die, do make and Ordain this my last Will and Testament that is to say, Principally and first of all, I give and recommend my Soul unto the hands of Almighty God that gave it, and my body I recommend to the Earth to be Buried in decent Christian Burial at the Discretion of my Executors, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the Mighty Power of God, and as touching such worldly Estate wherewith it hath please-ed God to bless me in this life, I give and demise and dispose of the same in the ffollowing manner and fform. Imprimis I Give and Bequeath this Hundred Acres that I live upon Hill and all Appurtenances belonging therunto to my Son Joseph Austin and his Heirs of his Body but if he should die Childless then to the next youngest that is Edeth, Item I give and Bequeath one Hundred acres to the Discretion of the three Executors to be sold or kept to pay of Debts or Credit that shall come in against the Estate it is to be understood of my Old Plantation between Broad River and little River, Item I Give and Bequeath to my most Dear beloved wife Elizabeth Austin Tract of One hundred and fifty acres on the Hill Creek that Runs to my Mill for my so-her own disposal and furthermore I leave every thing totally and wholly to her reserving things above mentioned as in the first and second Articles. Item I also leave my most loving Wife Elizabeth Austin my beloved Son Drury Austin and my Son John Austin whom I Constitute my only Executors of this my last Will and Testament and I do hereby utterly disallow revoke and disannul all and every other former Testaments wills Legacies Bequests and Executors by me in any ways before named willed and bequeathed Ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament.
