

Area Death Notices

Mr. Austin

Funeral services for Charlie R. Austin, the brother of a Chester man, were conducted Wednesday, September 26, in Gaston Memorial Park at Gastonia, North Carolina.

Mr. Austin died Sunday, September 23, in Raleigh, North Carolina. He was 80 years of age.

A native of Fairfield County, S. C., Mr. Austin was a son of the late Woodward G. and Mahalie Gregory Austin.

Survivors include three sons, Fuller, William and Robert Austin; four daughters, Mrs. Carroll Canady, Mrs. E. L. Glover, Mrs. Grady Robinson and Mrs. Carl Will; one brother, Sam C. Austin of Chester; and a number of nieces and nephews, many of whom reside in Chester.

Mrs. Huckabee

Mrs. Inez Hudson Hucabee, 81, widow of Dewitt T. Hucabee, died Saturday at the Kershaw County Hospital in Camden after an illness of sometime.

Born in the Armenia section of Chester County, she was a daughter of the late Thomas E. Hudson and the late Mrs. Lucy Brakefield Hudson and was a member of the Littleton Street Methodist Church in Camden.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Helen H. Beathea of Cartersville, Georgia; a son, DeWitt T. Hucabee, Jr. of Camden; four grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Frank Grant of Rock Hill.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday at the Armenia Methodist Church with the Reverend Jonathan Smith officiating. Interment followed in the Church cemetery with Barron Funeral Home in charge.

Nephews served as active pallbearers.

Miss Withers

Miss Lucile Withers, 91, died Tuesday at a Lexington Nursing Home after an illness of sometime.

Born in Chester, she was a daughter of the late John Samuel Withers and the late Mrs. Mary Walker Withers.

Surviving are a niece, Miss Mary Grey Withers of Columbia; and a nephew, John Samuel Withers of New York.

Graveside services will be conducted at 10 a. m. Thursday, October 4 at Evergreen Cemetery here with the Reverend Robert E. Smith, pastor of Zion Presbyterian Church, Winnsboro officiating. Barron Funeral Home is in charge of Tommy Foster of Jackson, Miss.; a stepson, John Black of Cross, S. C.; and three grandchildren.

Mrs. Little

Funeral services for Mrs. Ruby Westbrook Little of Union County, the mother of Chester County Tax Assessor John M. Little, III, were conducted at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the Forest Lawn Cemetery in Union with S. R. Holcombe Funeral Home in charge.

Mrs. Little, the widow of John M. Little, Jr. of Kelton, Union County, died Monday in the Wallace Thompson Hospital in Union after a short illness. She was 70.

Born in Cherokee County, Mrs. Little was a daughter of the late Robert and Emily Jones Westbrooks.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Bentley Ward of Mt. Pleasant, S. C.; a son, John M. Little, III of Chester; two sisters, Mrs. W. F. Whisnant of Belmont, N. C. and Mrs. Guy Scruggs of Galtney; and three grandchildren.

"Early Bird"

The 1974 South Carolina motor ve went on sale at 9 a.m. Monday, and this was the scene at the Chester off District Four Highway Department the by-pass. They were obviously t because in order to purchase new tag present a Form 406 which is obtai

Chit Chat-

(Continued from Page 2-A)

found out that the child would first have to obtain a social security number. The child is four weeks old.

+++++

4.4 PERCENT OF this nation's population own a great deal of what is worth owning in this country.

They hold virtually all of the corporate bonds and foreign bonds. They own 60 percent of all corporate stocks. They own 77 percent of state and local bonds and 71 percent of all federal bonds, except savings bonds.

On top of that, they have a third of the nation's personal cash, a fourth of the real estate, and 40 percent of non-

ADM moo