land bought from John Little John, adjoining land to son JOSEPH; dau. MARGARET CLOUD E. 50; to daus. ELIZABETH and MABLE 5 sh. each. Wife extrix. Wits; Joseph Pyle, William Ford, Benjamin Ford. (Reg. New Castle, Del.)

The first three sons above named were evidently living in Frederick Co., Va., where they "had made their choice" at time the above Will was made.

Daniel Cloud served in the Revolution as a private from Virginia, enlisting June 8, 1776 and serving until 1778. Mordecai Cloud's will was probated in Frederick Co. 1789.

William 4 Cloud, son of William of Brandywine Hundred, first appeared in S. C. by official records on the third day of January 1765 when he took a land grant on Fishing Creek in Chester Co., S. C., then old Craven County. He took two successive land grants for "increase in family". Sometime before 1775 William Cloud deeded this land on Fishing Creek in Chester County to his daughter Mrs. Alice Boyleston. This land is still owned by the Boyleston family. The other grant of William Cloud on Fishing Creek in Chester County was deeded to their son, James Cloud. William Cloud then removed to Virginia until after the Revolution when he came back to S. C. and records show that he was buying lands in this county on the first of January 1787.

The family record is that William Cloud married in Virginia to Alice Hardin before coming to S. C. originally. There are deeds in Fairfield and in Charleston showing Alice Cloud, the wife of William Cloud, as signing dower rights.

William Cloud made his Will March 14, 1810, probated Aug. 3, 1811, as follows: To wife and son, JOSEPH, certain negroes, cattle and furniture, remainder to be sold and divided equally between my daughters, SIN FORD, ALICE BOYLESTONE and grandson, VINCENT BELL; to grandson, WILLIAM CLOUD, son of DANIEL, all my lands lying on south side of Thorntree Creek at death of my wife; to daughter, ANN GUPHILL 5 schillings; JOSEPH CLOUD, my son and VINCENT BELL, my grandson, to be exrs. Wits: Leod Godbolt, Ananias Godbolt, Samuel Loughdote (Winnsboro Bk. 5-539). His children were: Joseph 5, b. Mar. 23, 1770, m. Marthas Nettles (See later); James, m. Jane McKennie; Ann, m. Ford; Alice m. Boyleston; David; dau. m. Bell, and had Vincent Bell who was to take his deceased mother's portion.
