VII. Clarence Ernest Pickett

Clarence Ernest Pickett b. 20 Nov. 1874; d. 26 Apr. 1940. Like some of his Pickett cousins, Clarence decided early in life that he wanted to be a doctor. His sister, Charlie, deserves much credit for his basic education and early training. He graduated from old Atlanta Medical College (Emory) in the class of 1894. After completing his medical training, he returned home and launched dual careers of medicine and farming. His practice included both medicine and surgery and spanned a period of forty years, interrupted only briefly during WWI. He received a commission in the U.S. Navy Medical Corps from 1 Oct. 1918 until 20 Mar. 1919; then reserve duty until 6 Sept. 1922 when he received his honorable discharge. He began his practice of medicine at a time when that profession, like many others was noted for hard work, long hours and poor pay. Through the years, he continued to study, to stay abreast of his contemporaries in the latest trends and application of medical technique. Two years after finishing medical school, he married 1 Oct. 1896 his childhood sweetheart, Ira Gordon b. 9 Feb. 1876; d. 16 Dec. 1964, dau. of James Madison and Mary Josephine Patten Gordon of Webster Co. CLOUD of PENNSYLVANIA, VIRGINIA, and SOUTH CAROLINA

William¹ Cloud, ancestor of this family, came from Calne, Wiltshire, England, and settled in Chester Co., Penn., where William Penn granted him 500 acres of land on Sept. 8, 1681. He made his will the 20th day of the 7th month 1700 which method of dating is usually a Quaker designation, and same was probated at Chester Aug. 25, 1702, as follows: "I, WILLIAM CLOUD of Concord Sem, in county of Chester, being aged and well stricken in years, do give unto my son WILLIAM CLOUD 100 acres of my purch. land; to my son JEREMIAH CLOUD 200 acres of my purchased land, to sons, JOSEPH, JOHN and ROBERT CLOUD one English shilling if demanded; to my grand daughter, HANNAH CLOUD, daughter of JEREMIAH CLOUD, all the rest of my estate, both real and personal, she to be Executrix. Son JEREMIAH to be Overseer". Wits: Robert Pyle, Ann Pyle, Sadie Pyle (Register of Wills, Phila.). Children: William, d. 1720, m. Grace; Jeremiah², m. Elizabeth Bailey (See later); Joseph, m. Mary Moore; John, m. Ann Beesom; Robert, dsp? Susanna, m. Lukens.

Jeremiah² Cloud, who inherited 200 acres from his father William, had a much larger estate upon his death 17 years later. Jeremiah made his will Feb. 20, 1715/16 same probated Dec. 1, 1717, as follows: "I, JEREMIAH CLOUD of Rexland Manor in County of New Castle upon the Delaware in Penn., cordwainer, being "sick and weak" give unto my beloved wife, ELIZABETH, and son, WILLIAM CLOUD, whom I constitute executors of my will, my manor plantation where I now dwell with cattle etc. Immediately after wife's death it is to become property of WILLIAM; to sons, JEREMIAH and MORDECAI 500 acres in Township of Marlborough, Chester Co.; to son, DANIEL, tract of land known as "Mount Pleasant", formerly land of Nathaniel Lampley near Chickester containing 200 acres; to son JOHN one shilling; to daus. SARAH, HANNAH, ELIZABETH at 21 certain pounds of ancient money". Wits: Geo. Robinson, Rob. GILLINGHAM (Dover Delaware Book C, Vol 1, p. 118).

William³ Cloud, son of Elizabeth (Bailey) and Jeremiah², is said to have also married an Elizabeth Bailey. He was of age in 1716 at the time his father made his will as he was the executor. He made his will at Brandywine Hundred, County of New Castle, Del., May 12, 1747, "in perfect health and memory", to son HENRY CLOUD, 400 acres in Frederick County, Va., where he hath made his choice at the lower end of my land"; to son, JEREMIAH CLOUD 400 acres in the same Colony where he hath made his choice adjoining to my son before mentioned; to son, DANIEL CLOUD, the reversion of the said tract except the bottom part to be equally divided between my three sons heretofore mentioned; to my wife, ELIZABETH, thirty pounds and all profits of my plantation until son WILLIAM comes of age; also to William tract of land bought from John Little John, adjoining land to son JOSEPH; to dau. MARGARET CLOUD b. 50; to daus. ELIZABETH and MABLE 5th. each. Wife extrix. Wits; Joseph Pyle, William Ford, Benjamin Ford. (Reg. New Castle, Del.)

The first three sons above named were evidently living in Fredrick Co., Va., where they "had made their choice" at time the above Will was made.

Daniel Cloud served in the Revolution as a private from Virginia, existing June 8, 1776 and serving until 1778. Mordcaei Cloud's will was probated in Frederick Co. 1789.

William⁴ Cloud, son of William of Brandywine Hundred, first appeared in S. C. by official records on the third day of January 1765 when he took a land grant on Fishing Creek in Chester Co., S. C., then old Craven County. He took two successive land grants for "increase in family". Sometime before 1775 William Cloud deeded this land on Fishing Creek in Chester County to his daughter Mrs. Alice Boyleston. This land is still owned by the Boyleston family. The other grant of William Cloud on Fishing Creek in Chester County was deeded to their son, James Cloud. William Cloud then removed to Virginia until after the Revolution when he came back to S. C. and records show that he was buying lands in this county on the first of January 1787.

The family record is that William Cloud married in Virginia to Alice Hardin before coming to S. C. originally. There are deeds in Fairfield and in Charleston showing Alice Cloud, the wife of William Cloud, as signing dower rights.

William Cloud made his Will March 14, 1810, probated Aug. 30, 1811, as follows: To wife and son, JOSEPH, certain negroes, cattle and furniture, remainder to be sold and divided equally between my daughters, SIN FORD, ALICE BOYLESTONE and grandson, VINCENT BELL; to grandson, WILLIAM CLOUD, son of DANIEL, all my lands lying on south side of Thorntree Creek at death of my wife; to daughter, ANN GUPHILL 5 schillings; JOSEPH CLOUD, my son and VINCENT BELL, my grandson, to be exrs. Wits: Leod Godbolt, Ananias Godbolt, Samuel Loughdote (Winnboro Br. 5-539). His children were: Joseph⁵, b. Mar. 23, 1770, m. Martha Nettles (See later); James, m. Jane McKemie; Ann, m. Martha Ford; Alice m. Boyleston; David; dau. m. Bell, and had Vincent Bell who was to take his deceased mother's portion.
