

Womelsdorf

Beam

Albert Beam is mentioned in History of Fairfield by M^r Master.

It says - In the Noble Survey mention is made of boundaries on lands of Meador Phillips, Hart, Tree, Wagner, Albert Beam etc.

Albert Beam has 100 acres on Reedy Creek, branch of Beaver Creek, March 27, 1773 also 50 acres Dec. 1, 1772 probably settled long before this.

Ezekiel Beam had warrant for 100 acres on branch of Mill Creek, May 3 1768.

He also says the Beams worshiped at Mahley Meeting House.

Judge Beam was a private in Little River Guards in war between the States.

A. J. Beam was a private in Buck Head Guards.

Jesse Beam a private in Co B. 17 Inf.
Jesse Beam is listed in 1790 census with 5 in family.

Albert Beam had 9 in family

Albert Beam is listed in 1829 census with 3 in family.

John Beam with 8 in family
Saul Beam with 2 in "

Handwritten notes on lined paper, including a vertical margin line on the left and three binder holes on the left edge. The text is extremely faint and illegible.

The Book Heir - Moberley Connections
says - Fairfield County Records - Appraisal of Estate of Albert Beom, signed
by Asaph Heir, Richard Heir + McCoyan Mahley 1790 - File box, Folder 33.

These records are in Archives in Columbia, S.C.

From Old Deeds & Papers compiled by Mrs B. H. Reason Jr.

Albert Beom Sr. Married Sarah Halsee
Their daughter Edith Married David Rae
Calmon

Albert Beom Sr. ~~was~~ Sarah Halsee
were the parents of Albert, who married
Sarah Mays, daughter of John + Elizabeth Mays

Albert Beom Sr. had a son Eligah who married Ann — Children Ferdinand Edith, and Nancy

Elizabeth Beom daughter of Albert Jr.
and his wife Sarah Mays, married Herson
Calmon.

Salomon Beom and his wife, Fannie, were living in Georgia in 1836. There was also a Jesse Beom, probably the son of Albert Sr.
Albert Sr. was in Fairfield in 1775.

Jesse had 9 children

Eligah Beom was dead in 1818

From Colson Book.

Children of Albert Beom

John

Jesse

Albert

William

Edict Colson

Mary "

Sarah "

Wesley

Elijah deceased

1. Ferdinand

2. Edict

3. Nancy - wife David Colson

Most of the entries have to do with transfer of deeds.

Albert Beom son of Albert Beom and Sarah Halsey died June 12, 1847 born about 1770. She Sarah Mayo, daughter of John + Elizabeth Richardson Mayo was born about 1753, died Jan 1, 1848

The Beom came from Germany

From: ~~Larry~~

dated Sept. 28, 1981

Mrs. Bernard Porter
820 Hunter Lake Dr.
Reno Nevada. 89509

Job Meador md. Elizabeth Mobley dau. of Edward Mobley

oldest ch. named Edward (died prior to father?)

Thos. brother of Job had son named Edward.
This family moved to Tenn.

Edward Meador, Jr. (parents ^{not shown} ~~unknown~~)
md Sally Beam, dau of Jesse Beam

Edward Jr + Sarah Beam - gg grandparents of
Mrs. Porter

Beam
Jesse - William

Jesse Beam was a private in Co. B
Seventeenth Regiment Infantry S. C. V.

Jesse Beam is listed in 1790 Census
with 5 in Family.

Albert Beam is listed with 9 in Family

The 1829 Census lists

Albert with 3 in Family and John with 8 " " and Saul with 2 " " "

The above taken from McWaters
History of Fairfield County.

Notes & Diary of Mrs. Jennie J. Coleman say when the Colemans came to Fairfield they settled on Beaver Creek. They found the Wagners, Beams, and Mahleyp already here. There was intermarriage with these families. The Beams came from Germany the Wagners from Holland and the Mahleyp from England. The Beams settled on Hickory Flat. This was in what was known as Fort Wagner.

Albert Beam, son of Albert Beam and Sarah Halsey died June 12, 1847. Born 1770
she, the daughter of John Mays and Elizabeth Richardson, was born about 1773
died Jan 1, 1846