

Bradley-Beam Vows Exchanged

Miss Martha Helen Beam and Timothy Jerome Bradley were united in holy matrimony on Saturday, December 2, at seven-thirty in the evening, in Lebanon Presbyterian Church. The Rev. John R. Thomspon and the Rev. Bryan Spivey officiated at the double-ring CEREMONY.

The sanctuary was simply but effectively decorated with magnolias, white poinsettias and candleabra.

Mrs. William B. Hendrix presented a program of nuptial music before the candlelight ceremony. Mrs. Jennings Duncan, soloist, accompanied herself on the guitar as she sang "There is Love." Mrs. Gunnar L. Rambo, Jr., soloist, sang three selections, "The Greatest of These is Love," "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Davis Jones Beam of Winnsboro. She is a graduate of Winnsboro High School and the University of South Carolina with a B. S. degree in health and physical education, and a master's degree in elementary education. She is employed by Richland County School District 1.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jerome Bradley of Eastover. He is a graduate of Lower Richland High School and attended Richland Tec. He is employed by Square D Electronics Corporation in Columbia.

The lovely bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore her sister-in-law's (Mrs. William Beam) wedding gown, fashioned of satin organza featuring fitted long sleeves, which ended in deep ruffled, pointed cuffs edged in lace. The bodice, with its Queen Anne neckline, was detailed with lace. Lace appliques adorned the skirt and a bow of organza centered the back at the waistline. The skirt and chapel length train were edged in lace. She wore a cathedral mantilla with Venise lace motifs applied on the blusher attached to the Venise lace Camelot cap. She carried the white Bible carried by her two sisters in their weddings, adorned with a bouquet of white rosebuds. Two red rosebuds were lifted out and given to the bride's mother and bridegroom's mother before and after the ceremony.
