

Former W'boro resident named Conn. C of C Citizen of the Year

Lottie B. Scott was recently selected as the 44th recipient of the eastern Connecticut Chamber of Commerce Citizen of the Year award.

Mrs. Scott was chosen for her "immeasurable contributions to the social, cultural and economic well-being of the Norwich (Connecticut) community."

Mrs. Scott was instrumental in establishing the Norwich Arts Center and served as president. She currently sits on the board of directors.

She was a charter member of the Norwich branch of the NAACP and chaired a labor and industry committee. She later served as president.

She was also president of the William W. Backus Hospital board of trustees and as member of the board of directors of the Connecticut Hospital Association.

Mrs. Scott currently serves on the Norwich Redevelopment Agency, Southeastern Connecticut YMCA board of directors, National Council of Negro Women, Norwich Rotary and Norwich Democratic Town Committee.

She has been a director of the Chamber, an incorporator of the Norwich Savings

Lottie B. Scott

3/24/94