Hello John,

Please provide the church name; so I can check on this for you.

I apologize for the delay; we are volunteer staffed and many other requests.

I have included a PDF version of our 1st Qtr Newsletter for your reading enjoyment.

Thanks for your patience with us.

John

I have attached the only info we were able to find here. We did not find anything on Tyrus of his wife Delphia.

Thanks for the information. My ancestor that lived in Richland and Fairfield counties is Asa and Ann Arledge Bell. He was born in 1772, and lived in the area until the mid 1840's. He was a Primitive Baptist minister. He died in Natchitoches Parish, LA in 1848. His son ( my ancestor ) was Tynus. His wife Delphia (last name unknown), this in one of the things I would like to find. Asa, also had children's names, Alpheus, Woodard, and a dau named Lydia that married William Stone. There are other daughters, possibly one married a Craig and another married an Armstrong. I have more information, but I have had some research other than my own conducted. Waiting to hear. Also Asa's father is Francis need probate or land deeds in Kershaw.

Please contact fairfieldgenealogy@truvista.net. Volunteers can do in house collections searches. We can recruit researchers for outside work (court house, Columbia archives, etc.) if you need extensive help. Which families are looking for. Please copy to me.
