Winnsboro, South Carolina, Thursday, August 11, 1955

Rutland to Succeed Him

Blair Retires as Postmaster at Rion After 24 Years of Service

MR. AND MRS. A. MAC BLAIR ON THEIR 50th ANNIVERSARY

Andrew McConnell Blair, life- as age is measured in 1955, Mr. ong citizen of Fairfield County, Blair tells of earlier days in etired this month as postmaster Winnsboro and recalls Miss Emily long citizen of Fairfield County, retired this month as postmaster at Rion, after 24 years of contin-uous service. He is being succeded by Robert Rutland, who has been named acting postmaster. Mrs. Bratton Hall (the former Miss Clee Clowney) continues as clerk and messenger in the Rion office. Jovial Mr. Blair (who is gen-erally known as "A. Mac"), has worked in Rion for the past 43 years. Prior to becoming post-master in 1931, when he succeed-ed the late Professor C. R. Spen-toric Mt. Zion Institute. A native of the Blair section of the late Thomas Blair and simarried to the former Miss Min-nie Camak, daughter of the famed "Mossy Dale" correspondent (the late T. C. Camak) of The News sons: Thomas Blair, a druggist retired this month as postmaster cer, he had managed the company store, then called the L. S. Mor-row Company, n o w Quarry Stores, Inc. Mr. Blair reminisces
I fascinatingly about the days of the late Benjamin H. Heyward and of his admiration and affec-tion for this unusual quarry ex-t ceutive of anothel age and gen-s eration.
and Herald, and they have two sons: Thomas Blair, a druggist who now travels for the Upjohn Company, of Greenwood, and Ed-ward Blair, who holds a position with the Winnsboro Mills.
Mr. Blair's many tiends wish him good luck, long to and hap-piness in his well-earned retire-ment. He and Mrs. Blair live on Route 3, Winnsboro.

WEEK

.