

side at Rich Hill Baptist Church. The family will receive friends at Mahaffey Funeral Home from 10-11 a.m. Monday prior to services.

Ms. Blackmon died Friday. Born in Lancaster County, she was a daughter of the late Robert Alexander and Rosalie McLeland Blackmon. She was a retired elementary school teacher, having taught in Lancaster County and other schools in both North and South Carolina. She was a graduate of Winthrop College.

Surviving are nieces and nephews.

James Boney

SPARTANBURG — Services for James Cassels Boney, 77, of 406 Springwood Drive, Duncan Park, will be 3 p.m. today at Morningside Baptist Church with Dr. Kirk H. Neely officiating and burial in Greenlawn Memorial Gardens. The family is at the home and will receive friends in the church social hall 1:30-3 p.m. today. Memorials may be made to the Building Fund of Morningside Baptist Church, 897 S. Pine St., Spartanburg 29302. Floyd's North Church Street Chapel is in charge.

Mr. Boney died Friday, April 18, 1997. Born in Chester, he was a son of the late Henry Calvin and Annie Laurie Cassels Boney. He was an Army veteran of World War II and he worked for Geer Drug Company for 37 years before retiring in 1982. Mr. Boney was an active member of Morningside Baptist Church of Spartanburg, where he served as a deacon, Sunday school teacher and choir member. He was a 1940 graduate of Furman University.

Surviving: wife, Edna Bussey Boney of the home; sons, Ralph E. Boney of Spartanburg and Robert H. Boney of Columbia; sister, Erline Boney Fennell of Chester; and five grandchildren. He was predeceased by a son, James C. Boney Jr. in 1981.