

Jackson-Boulware

Marian Boulware of Chester and Melvin C. Jackson, Sr., of Winnsboro were united in marriage Saturday, Aug. 26 at Blythewood Community Center. The Rev. Mildred Na-Allah officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Samuel Boulware, Jr.

She wore a satin Cinderella dress with pearls and diamonds with a heart-shaped design back with a five-foot train. Her headpiece was made of diamond-pointed pearls with lace.

Frances Chisholm, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. LaTonya Terry, daughter of the bride, served as maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Ella Norman, Frances Glenn, RoAnn Howze, Nekesha Steele, and Ruth Simpson, all friends of the bride; and Alice Boulware, Angela Boulware, Pauline Hayes, and Sarah Clawson, sisters of the bride.

Junior bridesmaids were Jelisa Jackson, daughter of the groom; Crystal Chisholm, and Denise Boulware, nieces of the bride; and Dekita Glenn and Erica Hemphill, friends of the bride.

Christine Hines and Breanna Howze, nieces of the bride, served as flower girls. Antonio Chisholm, nephew of the bride, served as ring bearer.

Ronald Glenn, friend of the groom, served as best man. Junior, best man was Melvin Jackson, Jr., son of the groom.

Ushers were Leon Boulware, Sr., nephew of the bride; Bruce Bagely, LeDell Rabb, and John Hemphill, all friends of the groom; Charles Boulware and Sylvester Terry, Jr.,

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin C. Jackson, Sr.

sons of the bride; and Lewis Jackson and John Jackson, brothers of the groom.

Junior ushers were Charles Hayes, Jr., Deleon Boulware, and Antwain Chisholm, nephews of the bride.

Mrs. Freida Boulware of Rock Hill was the director.

Lighting of the candles was done by Bruce Bagely and John Hemphill. Music was provided by Tracey Williams and Daniel Sanders. A dance routine ("Ribbon in the Sky") was by Christy Hemphill.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Sarah Boulware and the late Sam Boulware of Chester.

She is employed at South Carolina Electric & Gas as an administrative assistant.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Jackson of Winnsboro.

He is employed at South Carolina Electric & Gas as a mechanic.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Blythewood Community Center.