FAMILY OF JAMES - MARJORIE GRAY BOULWARE [5th great-grandparents of Jim Hall Jones]

JAMES b ca 1641 ENGLAND - married 1673 Old Rappahannock, VA - Died before 17 Feb 1718/19
MARJORY GRAY - b ca 1653 Old Rappahannock, VA -

"James and Marjory had 9 children; ELIZABETH BOULWARE, SARAH BOULWARE, JAMES BOULWARE, MARK BOULWARE, BENJAMIN BOULWARE, JOHN BOULWARE, WILLIAM BOULWARE, GRACE BOULWARE, and MARY BOULWARE. While we know nothing more of Elizabeth and Mary, we do know that the other daughters went on to marry. Grace outlived her first two husbands and lived to marry a third. All of the sons went on to become planters, married and had families. BENJAMIN appears to have died fairly young, while MARK went on to become a planter of considerable means. JOHN was a moderately successful planter who held 300 acres at the time of his death. JOHN married twice. First by November 19, 1733, he married ELIZABTH (surname unknown) and before August 18, 1759, he married MARY _____. Although the surname of John's second wife is not directly known, we do know that John became the guardian of William Noell on June 19, 1753. Most likely he married a widow with a son.

MARK BOULWARE b ca 1677 - SPOUSE: MARY [4th great-grandparents of JHJ] born in Essex Co, St Ann's Parish. (Her last name as shown in the IGI is BEYARLY). They were married ca 1711. His will probated 16 July 1764 (one record shows 1754?) (Essex Co, Caroline Co, Louisa, Co, Va.) names the following: Wife: MARY, Children: JAMES, WILLIAM, BENJAMIN, MARGARET (ELLIOT), MARTHA (HARRISON), WINNEFRED (PITTS), MARY (PITTS), ANN BOULWARE; son-in-laws: WILLIAM PEMBERTON and WILLIAM HARRISON; dtr-in-law: Mary BOULWARE, widow of son JOHN; grandchildren: SAMUEL BOULWARE, LEROY BOULWARE, CALEB BOULWARE, MARK BOULWARE, SUSANNAH ELLIOTT - dtr of WM PEMBERTON - Brothers: JOHN & BENJAMIN BOULWARE.

WILIAM BOULWARE b ca 1712/19 m MARY MUSCOE b 1714. [3rd great-grandparents of JHJ] According to family tradition, MARY SALVATOR MUSCOE is buried within the Boulware Walls at Flint Hill, Fairfield County, but there is no tombstone or record of this. (Mary was daughter of SALVATOR MUSCOE born 1674 and died 16 June 1741 at the age of 67. He appears first as a lawyer in 1702. He emigrated from England as shown by his will. He lived forty yers in Essex County, VA and served his country successfully as Justice, Sheriff and Burgess from 1736 to 1740.)

There is no definite record that WILLIAM BOULWARE, the son of MARK BOULWARE, was the WILLIAM BOULWARE who married MARY MUSCOE, but we follow the line of succeeding generations from JAMES BOWLER to determine which WILLIAM BOULWARE it was, whom tradition says married MARY MUSCOE. From statements in Wills, and the names of members of the different families, it can be concluded that the line comes down from JAMES BOWLER, and through his son MARK - then through MARK's second son WILLIAM. This is the only WILLIAM BOULWARE who was a contemporary of MARY MUSCOE.

The earliest traces of him (William Boulware) in Fairfield County, SC, refer to him as Captain BOWLER and Captain BOLER. The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography Vol 20 page 205 states: "May 11th 1750..WILLIAM BOULWARE, Gentleman, as Lieutenant of a troop in a Militia qualified." And in Googhers Gleamings of Virginia History, Page 187, WILLIAM BOULWARE is listed as serving in Colonel Theoderich Blands First Virginia Regiment in 17__.

There were references as to "Tudor Hall" at Newton and to "Travelers Rest", where WILLIAM lived, and where he was known locally as "LORD BOULWARE". His house was burned, but a brick house was built originally by the Brooks family. It was called "Lord" Boulware's place. It was eight miles southeast of Fredericksburg, VA.

The BOULWARES in Virginia had been Episcopalians, but in the absence of this church in the new home, they affiliated with Mount Olivet. They became devout Presbyterians, and took on the inhibitions as to dancing, card playing, etc., but which did not exclude conviviality and the flowing bowl.

MUSCO BOULWARE b 1758 at Bowler's Wharf on Rappahannock River in Essex Co, Va - died 1825. Married NANCY PICKETT b 1762 - died 1836. [2nd great-grandparents of JHJ]

From the research manuscript of Col. McMaster, quoting one of his findings from "Virginia Magazine and Biography, which reads as follows: "Reverting back to the South Carolina records, it was found that Dr. Edrington in his Historical notes of Fairfield, mentioned MUSCOE BOULWARE of Virginia who settled near Horse Creek. Of course this identifies our original BOULWARE 1758, who lived near Flint Hill in the 'EAGLE HOUSE', and who built the walls of the old Boulware cemetery'. They came from King and Queen County, of Tidewater [Virginia]

The following quotation is from Mrs. Ella Boulware Beat of Charleston, SC. "'EAGLE HOUSE', Flint Hill, got its name from 'a large golden eagle, with wings outspread, measuring six feet from tip to tip, which was over the great door to the house. It was said to be a very impressive sight". This tradition had come down by word of mouth through the years and I have never seen any disposal of it in a will, but it may have been considered a part of the house, and stayed there as long as the house remained. Nor do I know what became of 'Eagle House'. Mrs. MARY WYLIE STRANGE of Chester, SC, says the house was burned by Sherman's Army in the war between the states.

TRANSCRIPT of an article published in the Winnsboro News and Herald. Signed Antiquarian in 1926

"Ten miles east of Winnsboro on the Flint Hill ridge sloping toward the Wateree River, is situated one of the antiquities of Fairfield County, 'BOULWARE WALLS', the old cemetery of the Boulware family." "This old cemetery is of unusual extent for a family burying ground, and its walls are of such massive construction that trees of considerable size are growing from the tops of the walls, which are still in good state of preservation.

"In addition to the Scotch-Irish and French element, which constituted so much of the original settlement of the County, there was a considerable inflow of settlers from the Tidewater region of Virginia. MUSCOE BOWLER (BOULWARE), the pioneer of his family in Fairfield, belonged to the last named contingent. At the close of the Revolution, he with his wife, NANCY PICKETT, moved to S. C. from the vicinity of Bowlers Wharf on the lower Rappahannock River where the family had settled more than a century before. He established his home near the site of the old cemetery, and lived in what was known as the 'Eagle House'. Thirty years ago the brick piles of the old chimney were still standing, and there were a few of the old fruit trees remaining from the home orchard."

"MUSCOE BOWLER (BOULWARE) was a descendant of THOMAS BOWLER who was living in Yorktown, VA. As early as 1653, and who later moved to Rappahannock and represented that County on the Governor's Council in 1675, and died in 1679.

"THOMAS BOULWARE'S wife was a grand-daughter of Colonel MATTHEW EDLOE who came to Virginia on the Neptune in 1618, and who was a member of the house of Burgess in 1629. MUSCOE BOULWARE acquired his rather unusual first name from his mother who was the daughter of SALVATOR MUSCOE, a Lawyer, a justice, and a Burgess from 1736 to 1740, for Essex County, Va.

"Edington's historical notes of Fairfield County mentions MUSCOE BOULWARE as a soldier of the Revolution. This is confirmed in the Virginia State Library where his name appears in the 'List of Revolutionary Soldiers of Virginia'. The reference being in the Auditors account XXVII-118.

"His father who was a Revolutionary soldier in Col Bland's first Virginia Regiment is also reputed to be buried in this cemetery, but this cannot be verified, as there are no tombstones at the present time.

"There are numerous unmarked graves of which there can only be surmised; the most recent tombstone is that erected to the memory of the mother of the late JOHN J NEIL, which bears only the inscription 'my mother'.

"In all, four generations of the name MUSCOE BOULWARE lived in Fairfield County. The descendants of MUSCOE BOULWARE I, moved to Chester County, and the name MUSCO has come down through MUSCO, son of THOMAS McCULLOUGH and grandson MUSCO I, and his son GRAY who has two sons, GRAY and MUSCO. These two sons are now living in Memphis, Tennessee. Also, through MUSCO W, son of BENJAMIN BOULWARE.

"It is rather characteristic of the BOULWARE family that their migrations were along of longitude instead of latitude, and that they were all River family, living first along the York River and then the Rappahannock, the Wateree and the rivers and Lakes of Florida. At least one branch has returned to Virginia, in the persons of the family of the distinguished Engineer THOMAS McCULLOUGH BOULWARE who was born and raised in South Carolina.

"There are still many members of the BOULWARE name still living in Fairfield County and through inter-marriage; there are also numerous descendants among the families BUCHANAN, WOODWARD, NEIL, HALL, STOKES, McMASTERS, MATTHEWS, PICKETT, KENNERLY, STEVENSON, McDONALD and others.

"The excuse for this article is to bring this old graveyard to the attention of these younger descendants in the hope that adequate steps be taken for its preservation.

"The land upon which it lies is at the present time in the kindly possession of Mr. ROBERT C GOODING."

The above was written 1926. NOTE: It cannot be proved that THOMAS BOWLER was the father of WILLIAM and JAMES BOULWARE, therefore, we can not prove that he was the ancestor or the above MUSCOE BOULWARE - however, this is taken from the publication as written.

THE BOULWARE WALLS - This burying ground was established shortly after the Revolution by MUSCOE BOULWARE (1758-1825) and his wife NANCY PICKETT, and they rest within its walls. They came from King and Queen County, of Tidewater Virginia, bought land on the Flint Hill ridge, and built a home which they called "EAGLE HOUSE".

When MUSCOE BOULWARE died, in 1825, he made bequests in his will to ten children, leaving the home place to his married son Doctor WILLIAM R A BOULWARE, but providing that his wife, NANCY BOULWARE should continue to live there.

When Dr. BOULWARE died in 1832, he devised the home place to his oldest brother, THOMAS BOULWARE, but made legal provisions for the cemetery by stating, "I do hereby reserve one acre of land which I appropriate and set apart as a family burying ground, with a suitable way of access to it.

His mother continued to reside at the old home place to her death in 1836. Three of her daughters married PICKETT cousins, and both PICKETTS and BOULWARES are buried within the old walls. The walls are quite massive, of rubble construction, about two feet thick, and extend nearly two hundred feet each way. The gateway pillars are of dressed stone with wrought iron gate.

There is tradition that the first burial in the cemetery was that of WILLIAM BOULWARE, father of MUSCOE I, but there is no tombstone, neither is there a monument to MUSCOE I, nor is wife, NANCY PICKETT. The earliest monument is that of MUSCOE II, died 1832. The latest is that of SALLIE RAINS ROBERTSON dated 1889. There are a number of other monuments among them one carrying only the inscription "My Mother". (Judge Neil's mother). In 1946 the BOULWARE WALLS were repaired and monument erected.

21 years, so that the portion can not legly make partition among themselves, I do hereby empower my executors, hereinafter named, or such of them as shall justify, with the assistance of three disinterested men, to be approved by the ordinary of Fairfield District, for the time being, to make such division, or if a division be impracticable, to order a sale of such property, or any part, for the purpose of effecting partition.

ITEM 17. I nominate and appoint sons, BENJAMIN BOULWARE and THOMAS BOULWARE, and DAVID McDOWELL, executors of this my last will and testament. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fifteenth day of Novembear, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty six, and in the sixtieth year of the Independence of the United States of America.

NANCY BOULWARE
