

Rubin Boulware

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - Rubin Boulware, 47, died Friday, May 23, 1997.

Services conducted by Ricky Gibson were held Thursday, May 29, 1997 at St. Paul Baptist Church. Burial followed in Russell Cemetery.

Honorary pallbearers were officers of St. John Baptist Church. Active pallbearers were nephews.

Honorary floralbearers were members of the missionary society and active floralbearers were nieces.

Born February 24, 1950 in Fairfield County, he was the son of Louise White and stepson of Mose White and the son of the late Willie Squirewell. Mr. Boulware was a former employee of Manhattan Shirt Co.

Survivors are daughters Louise Boulware, Marilyn Boulware, Renee Boulware and Sheena Boulware, all of Charlotte, N.C.; son Antonio Boulware of Charlotte, N.C.; sisters Pauline Gilmore and Miriam Irby of Winnsboro, Margaret Kennedy of Rock Hill, Laura Grant, Rudine Bennet and Nell Boulware, all of Maryland and Gail Stone of Washington, D.C.; brothers Wallace Boulware of Columbia, Larry Boulware and Dwight Boulware of Winnsboro and Willie Boulware of Washington, D.C.; also brothers and sisters, Lula Mae Sims, Estelle Chappelle, Gloria McDaniel, Carrie Baker, Oscalarla Smith, Roosevelt, James and Joseph Squirewell; and other relatives.

Brothers Spencer Boulware and Willie Ed Squirewell preceded him in death.

Glover's Memorial Chapel was in charge of arrangements. 6/12/97