

Robert L. Boulware

WINNSBORO - Robert L. Boulware, 93, died Saturday March 12, 1994.

Services were held Friday, March 18, at White Oak Baptist Church, officiated by Rev. Arthur Gayton, with burial in New Zion AMEZ Church Cemetery.

Pallbearers and flower-bearers were friends of the family.

Born in Fairfield County on May 2, 1900, he was a son of the late George W. Boulware and Maggie Harrison Boulware. He joined New Zion A.M.E. Zion Church at an early age. He was first married to the late Mary Canty Boulware and later married the late Amie Simpson Boulware. He was a farmer and land owner.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy B. Perry (James) of Winnsboro, Mrs. Statory B. Booker of Washington, D.C.; two sons, Robert L. (Ruby) Boulware Jr. and Richard J. Boulware of Anderson, Ind.; one sister-in-law, Mrs. Annie B. Dickerson of Fayetteville, W.Va.; two brothers-in-law of Baltimore, MD.; 33 grandchildren; 50 great-grandchildren; 13 great-great-grandchildren; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives.

Gibson's Funeral Services, Winnsboro, was in charge of arrangements. 3/24/94