Hello Eddie.

Apologies for the delay.....I got to talking with my mom about all of this!!
I was the person on the phone with Pelham Lyles earlier.

I am looking for information on

Carrie Boyd Taylor - my maternal grandmother, born 2 May 1926
JD (thought this stood for James David) Taylor, born Aug btw 1922-24 (?)
....specifically information on their marriage and children. I don't know when they would have married, except that in 1940 my grandmother was still at her parents home (age 15).

My mother Carrie Rebecca Taylor was born in Fairfield Co in 1943. I don't believe she was the oldest; there may have been ~two other children before her birth.

✓ I found through census records that my grandmother lived in Township 10 her father was Richard Boyd and her mother was named Carrie Mack Boyd. My granddad was raised in nearby Township 9 (he lived in his grandmother's house with his mother Mary Taylor).

I am also looking for information on Mary Taylor, JD's mama, specifically birth and death records, and information about her children. We were told a story about his father being from the Lyles family, and also that she was found dead (maybe in the 80s or early 90s), information that I have not been able to confirm.

Please let me know if you require anything more. I really appreciate your help .....and I imagine that you are super-busy; I wish I were there to help you!

I am excited about running into you and Pelham and look forward to meeting you very soon!

Regards,

Hello Clara,

I have searched our records and online data and have arrived at the following three families that could be yours. I wish that I could give you a definitive answer, but am unable to do so.

There was a John Taylor living in Township # 9 in the 1900, 1910 and 1920 Census with the following family.

The 1900 Census lists:

John Taylor	born in March 1871
Mary – wife	born in January 1874
John – son	born in April 1891
Charles – son	born in February 1893
Walter – son	born in May 1895
Lillie – daughter	born in March 1897
Orange – son	born in January 1900

The 1910 and 1920 Census added the following children:

Ulysses – son	born about 1903
Bertha-daughter	born about 1905
Clarence – son	born about 1913
Mary Jane-daughter	born about 1914
George – son	born about 1916
James – son	born about 1920

The 1910 and 1920 Census lists John as being a mulatto and lists Mary as Mary E.

This family was also living in Township # 9 in the 1930 Census.

Charlie E. Taylor	37
Eunice – wife	35
Charlie E., Jr. – son	16
Walter – son	15
Lucile – daughter	13
Nathaniel – son	10
J. D. – son	8 – born about 1922
Rosetta-daughter	7
A. J. – son	5
John W. – son	3
Amos – son	2
Ruth – daughter	0

There is another family also living in Township # 9 in the 1930 and 1940 Census:

The 1930 Census lists a Simon, age 70, with the following family:

- Hannah – his wife 60
- Hannah – daughter 25
- Mary – daughter 22
- Eliza – daughter 17
- John D. – son 16
- Lindsay – son 15

There were 13 grandchildren in the house and one of them was Jim D., aged 7.

By the 1940 Census, Simon Taylor had died and Hannah was head of the household. Her daughter Mary listed in the 1930 Census in not listed in the 1940 Census. There is a J. D. Taylor listed who was 16 in 1940 and I probably the Jim D. listed in the 1930 Census.

I have included the Death Certificate for John Taylor and his daughter Bertha Taylor who married a Mitchell.

Hi Eddie,

I just saw your information. Wow! I am unsure of the relationship with John Taylor and his family. Those names do not sound familiar at all.

I apologize that I wasn't very clear about what I was looking for....blame it on all of my excitement for all of this researching and all of the challenges (!!!!!), unfortunately this 'stuff' is not so easy to find. I appreciate your suggestions/advice on how to handle finding this information going forward and if you have additional time to put into my request it will be greatly appreciate.

From the information that you sent (copied below), I believe that Simon and Hannah Taylor were James David (aka, Jim D or J.D.) Taylor's grandparents and Mary is his mother:

There is another family also living in Township # 9 in the 1930 and 1940 Census:

The 1930 Census lists a Simon, age 70, with the following family:

Hannah – his wife	60
Hannah – daughter	25
Mary – daughter	22
Eliza – daughter	17
John D. – son	16
Lindsay – son	15

There were 13 grandchildren in the house and one of them was Jim D., aged 7.

I also recognized from the information provided in both the 1930 to 1940 Census, that Simon was deceased; Mary was in and out of the house; and the Grandmother Hannah housed a lot of grandchildren.

I was interested in finding a death certificates for Simon, Hannah (in hopes of finding Simon and Hannah's parent's names), and for Mary Taylor as well. (I have heard there was an article in the newspaper about Mary's death because she was missing and later found dead...maybe in the woods or something in the 1980s or 90's. I really don't know very much more than that about her.)

I am trying to confirm the marriage of J. D. Taylor to my grandmother, Carrie Boyd, daughter of Richard and Carrie (Mack) Boyd. She is shown in the 1940 Census as living in her parents home in Township 9, Fairfield County, SC.....so between 1940 and 1947 J.D. hooked up with Carrie Boyd. They had ~four children born in South Carolina: my mother Carrie Rebecca Taylor (born 1943) and her sister Betty Jean (born 1947), one maid child stillborn (unsure of the year), and daughter Inez (unsure of her name and possibly born between 1940-47), whose death was related to a fire (????). My grandfather, J.D. moved his family to Wake County, NC sometime between 1947-1950s. (It sure would be a tremendous help to have the 1950s Census :) .)

Thank you very much.
