

MRS. STERLING ALEXANDER BOYD (above) was Miss Elizabeth Gilpin, daughter of Mrs. Edith Davis Gilpin of Chester, S. C., and the late Albert Gilpin, before her marriage August 31. Sergeant Boyd is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson Boyd of the Cornwell section of Chester county.

Miss Gilpin Wed To Sergeant Boyd.

CHESTER, S. C., Sept. 5. — Miss Elizabeth (Lily) Gilpin and Sgt. Sterling Alexander Boyd of the Air corps were married Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Albert Gilpin, on Pinckney street.

Capt. Julian S. Ellenberg, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church of Chester, now on leave to serve in the Army, at present at Camp Butler, N. C., officiated.

Mrs. John L. McKee rendered the nuptial music on the piano. The candles were lighted by Jimmie Cushman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Cushman, cousin of the bride, while Mrs. R. E. Hamrick sang.

First to enter was Miss Adeline Davis, cousin of the bride. She was followed by two flower girls, Betty Mac Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Davis, and Marguerite Castles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hall Castle. J. Edward Davis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Davis, was the ring bearer.

Next came the bride. She was met at the foot of the stairway by her uncle, J. Edward Davis, who gave her in marriage.

The bridegroom entered from a side entrance with his best man, Hugh James Boyd, a cousin, and met the bride at the appointed place in the ceremony room.

Members of the two families and a few close friends of the young couple attended the ceremony and the reception which followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd left during the evening for a wedding trip.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Edith Davis Gilpin and the late Albert Gilpin. She was graduated from the Chester High school and is one of Chester's most popular young women.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson Boyd, Sr., of the Cornwell section of Chester county. He was graduated from Chester High school and has been for some time in the Air corps, member of the ground crew, and is stationed at the Venice, Fla., airfield.
