W. William Boyd's
Petition vs

To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives.

The petition of the Subscriber,

Humly sheweth;

That your petitioner, having served his Country as a Soldier, and having also provided Forage & Liqueur in the year 1775 and likewise in the same Expedition; a regular return of which was delivered to the late Genl by Capt John Rodgers; the amount whereof, (being £273.13) he has frequently sent for, as will appear by the papers inclosed herein; & never yet recd any kind of compensation for the same; to which, as a Citizen of this State, he considers himself entitled.

Your Petitioner therefore prays you would take his case into your consideration, and to grant him that redress, which has hitherto been withheld from him, by some unknown cause; and which he respectfully hopes your Honors, as Guardians of the People's Rights, will not permit any man to be denied.

And your Petitioner, as in duty bound, shall ever pray &c
