

Branham, Cooper

Allison Marie Branham of Winnsboro and James Dwight Cooper III of Winnsboro were united in marriage July 12, 1997 at Sawney's Creek Baptist Church in Ridgeway.

The Rev. Richard Humphries officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents.

She wore a formal gown of white satin with re-embroidered Alençon lace, seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The gown featured a sweetheart neckline, short puffy sleeves and a princess line bodice that flowed into a cathedral train. She wore a fingertip veil.

She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses, daisies and miniature white carnations with greenery.

Tami DeBruhl served as maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Christa Branham, Myra Boulware and Jennifer Walling.

Heather Boulware served as flower girl.

James Dwight Cooper Jr., father of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Chris Bass, Robbie Black and Jason Reynolds.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the church fellowship hall.

7/17/97

Mrs. James Dwight Cooper III

The bride is the daughter of Michael and Margaret Branham and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Branham and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Douglas. Allison attended the College of Charleston and is employed with Master Tire Company.

The groom is the son of Sandi M. Cooper of Winnsboro and Dwight and Joann Cooper of Lexington. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Cooper and Ola Mae Morris and the late Mr. Ernest Morris, all of Winnsboro. The groom graduated from Richard Winn Academy and is currently employed by UPS of Columbia.

Following a honeymoon to Charleston, the couple will reside in Winnsboro.