

... by Douglas Southall Freeman, 3 volumes, has numerto General John Bratton. Among them, I quote the follow-page 549-60; Referring to another promotion to brigadi-He now had been exchanged and had not been too griev-his imprisonment to resume field duty, Accordingly, he lead the troops with whom his record had been high....
..Promotion of the same sort went to Col. John Bratton th Carolina. This young physician, now 33, had been reck" Anderson as early as the end of May 1862 for comdier General, but he had served in Micah Jenkins's omotion was slow. Now he had the Brigades still strong ndomitable in spirit....."

lists, page 766, General John Bratton among "The final Appomattox) showed the following infantry officers sent for surrender and parole.... John Bratton....."

General Bratton was listed as a director of the pany. (McMaster's "History of Fairfield County".) to "The patriarchal form of Dr. Bratton might be seen few small ~~towns~~ villages could show a more striking "This appears to refer to Dr. William Bratton, Jr., John Bratton and son of Senator William Bratton of
ve. McMaster, page 99.

refers to "Dr. Bratton's house"... among "many good
....."