Constitution of 1790 provided for four-year terms for Senators. So that elections would be staggered, lots were to determine which districts had two-year terms (starred) and which four-year. Of the two Senators from the of Marlborough, Chesterfield, and Darlington, Mr. Ellison drew for two years and Mr. Brown for four. Of Senators from the Parish of St. Philip's and St. Michael's, Dr. Ramsay drew for two years and Mr. Pinckney years.
