

Eliza Hall Bratton

It was said, "She was always there, in church, in school, in her home and in the community." She was the pianist and the organist at Bethesda A.M.E. Zion Church for over 50 years. After attending, Allen University in Columbia, South Carolina where she received the Bachelors of Science Degree in Home Economics, Dressmaking and Music, with these diverse talents she helped many people in the community.