Obituary

NANCY BRICE, daughter of Charlie and the late Sarah Rabb Brice, Sr., was born in Fairfield County on October 29, 1939. God saw her as a toilsome worker. He knew the many aches and pains she had gone through. He called her from labor to rest at the Chester County Hospital on Saturday, January 5, 1985 at 5:10 p.m. after a long illness.

Nancy joined the Red Hill Baptist Church and began to work for the Lord. She knew that some day the sun would go down and she would have someone to go her bond. She was easy-going in the Lord's house and with people.

Nancy moved to Baltimore, Maryland in the year 1962 where she continued to carry out the Lord's work. She joined the New Pilgrim Baptist Church on September 23, 1962 where she worked faithfully. Nancy was an easy-going member and joined under the leadership of Rev. W.H. Black. She worked faithfully until her health began to fail. Whatever she was asked to do in the church and by friends, she did it with a smile.

She was always a lovely person to know and to have for a friend. When she was sick, she still worked and looked after her family. She loved people and showed her concern for them; sick or well, you call her and she would be there.

She leaves mourn: three daughters, Ms. Sarah (Pee-Wee) Brice, Ms. Norma J. Brice and Ms. Janice M. Anderson; father, Mr. Charlie Brice, Sr. (daughters, all of Baltimore); three sisters, Ms. Lucy Brice, Mrs. Willie Mae Stepenson and Mrs. Rebecca Hall, all of Chester, S.C.; one brother, Mr. Charlie Brice, Jr. of Baltimore; three grandchildren, one brother-in-law, six aunts, three uncles, a host of other relatives, and friends.

*God hath not promised skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways, all our lives through;
God hath not promised sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow, peace without pain.
But God hath promised strength for the day,
Rest for labor, light for the way;
Grace for the trials, help from above,
Unfailing sympathy, undying love.*
