

John Lee Brice

1901-1980

He was the son of Emanuel and Narciss Brice. He was married to Bessie Camak and they had five children.

He was active in solicitation of voter registrations in 1972 and participated in many other community activities. He received a plaque of recognition in organizing the Shelton-Blair Credit Union in 1967. He also received a certificate of recognition from Martin Luther King Jr. at the NAACP Southern Christian Leadership Conference in Atlanta, Georgia in 1963. John was a faithful deacon for over 50 years of the Hassion Hill Baptist Church.