

James Broome, III, promoted to Air Force lieutenant colonel

James L. Broome, III, a native of Winnsboro, was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel, U.S. Air Force, in a ceremony at Hickam Air Force Base in Hawaii on Dec.29.

The ceremony was attended by Broome's wife, April Broome of Jackson, MS; his mother, Helen Tucker of Winnsboro; his father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. James Broome, Jr., of Morristown, NJ; and his sister, Gwendolyn Chappell of Columbia.

Lt. Col. Broome is currently Chief, Logistics Maintenance Inspections, Office of the Inspector General, Headquarters, Pacific Air Forces.

Broome was born in Winnsboro in 1961, and is a 1979 graduate of Winnsboro High School.

He received a bachelor of science degree in criminal justice

Lt. Col. James L. Broome, III

from the College of Charleston in 1983, and a masters of business administration from Wayland Baptist University in Texas in 1994.