

✧ WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU ✧

When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears,
And hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways.
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
And hld you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!

Acknowledgments

The flower you sent that day, the cards you mailed along the way,
The service you stoped by to render, the gift you brought with thought so tender;
The prayers you said which played a part in easing the pain that was in our hearts;
Each helped us to find that strength to bear the loss of the one we held so dear.
It was to us a great comfort indeed to see you in the time of sorrow and need;
So from our hearts which you tried to help mend, We thank you sincerely again and again for being such truly wonderful friends.

"LET THE WORK I DONE SPEAK FOR ME"

On Tuesday November 13, 2001, Mrs. Maggie Elizabeth Moore Young Brown, departed this life and started on a journey she had been making preparation for a long time. She saw a light that seemed to promise peace and rest.

Born in Fairfield County Co. March 13, 1933, daughter of Giff Moore Dunifer and the late Cain Dunifer, and Ralph McDow.

Maggie confessed Christ at an early age and joined Antioch Baptist Church, and later united with Friendship Baptist Church. After her marriage she joined Upper Hope Station Baptist Church and served faithful, until she reunited with Friendship Missionary Baptist Church and served very faithful until the end.

Maggie was a faithful member of Hymn Choir, Helping Hand Ministry, Ministers, Deacons and Trustees Ministry, A.P. & B Society #19, Founder of the MYB Singers of Chester, SC; Member of the Queen Bathsheba O.E.S.#7, Foster Parent for many years, and was a former employee of Chester Co. Hospital. Maggie attended the public schools in Chester Co.

Maggie was united in marriage to the late Wade Young and to this union they were blessed with six Children, and later she was united in marriage to the late Herman Brown. To know her was to love her, she will greatly be missed by her family and friends. She leaves fond and cherished memories; one son, Wade Young, Jr. of Chester, SC; five daughters, Brenda Young Kinard, and Linda C. Young both of Chester, SC; Georgia Young Rhinehart and husband Derrick of McConnells, SC; Gifberta Young of Rock Hill, SC; and Jan Young of Chester, SC; one foster son, Frankie Jackson of Winston Salem, NC; mother Giff M. Dunifer of Chester, SC; three brothers, Samuel Moore of Washington, DC; Isaiah Dunifer and Johnny Dunifer both of Chester, SC; four sisters, Mary(Willie)Caldwell, Nora Evans, Carrie(Bobby)Lann, Genell(Jimmy)Campbell all of Chester, SC; twelve grandchildren Vera Pressley, Willie, Alicia, Marques, Shakia, Ta'Rackus, Wade, Shar'Daye, Sierra, Trey, Alexis, Russia, four great grandchildren, Desmond, Shaniece, Breanna, and Brittney, three aunts Reba Dunifer, Katie Roseborough, and Lula Young all of Chester, SC; sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.
