

Oct 10
Mrs. C. Wilmot Brown 1987

Mrs. Josephine Brice Brown, 94, of 1904 Pendleton St., widow of Charles Wilmot Brown, died Saturday.

Born in Fairfield County, she was a daughter of the late Robert Edwin and Mrs. Caroline Flenniken Brice. Her family moved to Columbia during her early years and she attended public schools and the College for Women. She was a member of First Presbyterian Church and the pulpit committee. She was flower chairman for 20 years a circle chairman.

She served as lay coordinator for church weddings and was awarded honorary life membership in the Women of the First Presbyterian Church for her work and donation to the church. She was a member and past regent of the DAR, Ann Pamela Cunningham Chapter and a member and past president of the Fortnightly Book Club.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. C. Warren (Josie) Irvin Jr. of Columbia; grandchildren, Charles W. III and Wilmot B. Irvin of Columbia; and great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be held at 4 p.m. today at First Presbyterian Church Cemetery, conducted by the Rev. Warren M. Wardlaw.

The family will receive friends at the home of her daughter of 1436 Berkeley Road.

Dunbar Funeral Home, Gervais Street Chapel, is in charge.