

Buchanan, John Capt

It is my will that should my old negro Fortune (who has been a faithful servant
to me) be alive at the decease of my wife that he be no longer considered a slave & that he have a reasonable support from the remainder Residue of my estate such as my executors may think proper to allow him during his life Sept 20 1823
Rec. Sept. 23, 1824

Buchanan, John 52. Lawyer in the Ocean

Harriet 50 W. Co.

Samuel 23

Ann 22

W^m 19

Robert 21 Physician

Rebecca Young, 8^{1/2} 71 Carolina

Buchanan

John (Gen)

Census
1850

Age 59 son in ocean lawyer

Harriet R. 50 dau Parson A. W. Yorkport W. Va

Samuel 23 lawyer

Ann 22 Farmer

W^m 19

Robert Augustus Buchanan 21 Physician
(son Creighton)

Buchanan

Capt. John

Re: Will + Old Fortune's

"My old negro Fortune, who has been a faithful servant to me be alive at the decease of my wife that he no longer be considered a slave and that he have a reasonable support from the remainder and residue of my estate, such as my executor may think proper to allow him during his life

Sept. 20 1823

Recorded Sept. 23, 1824

A clause in will, if my wife so desires;