Notes for ANDREW FRANKLIN BURLEY:

Andrew Franklin Burley son of Harrison A. Burley. He grew up in the community of Monticello, S.C. He spent a lot of time across the Broad River in the Pomaria, S.C. area where he had a lot of kin and a number of friends.

At the age of 16, he joined the Confederate Army. He served in Company B, 3rd Batt. South Carolina Reserves. He was a private.

The 3rd Batt. S.C. Res. was made up of a number of companies made up of men of the "Dutch Fork" area. The area included Pomaria, Little Mountain, Peak, and Springhill, part of Newberry County. This is a area on Broad River on the western side where German or Broken English was still spoken. Captain Augustus Dickert of the 3rd Batt. tells that Lee's Army of Northern Virginia called his men "the Dutch". This was because of the way most of them talked. At the battle of Chancellorsville, Va. when Capt. Dickert brought up his troops; a cry broke out "Hurrah for the Dutch".

The 3rd was merged with the 15th South Carolina Inf. also part of Blanchards Reserves to form the new 7th South Carolina Infantry. He became connected with Co. E. He was serving under General Joseph E. Johnson at the close of the War Between The States.

In the latter part of the War Between the States, Fairfield County suffered more than other parts the state. This is the only county in which every unit of Sherman's army went through at the same time.

Sherman's troops took all of the livestock. Either destroyed or took all of the crops. Took all of the food in the house. Harrison Burley put all the silverware in the well so that they would have something to sell for food.

After the war Andrew Franklin Burley joined his brother in Louisiana. He spent most of the rest of his life in this area.[BURLEY.FTW]

Andrew Franklin Burley lived early part of his life in Monticello, S.C. At time of the War Between the States he joined the Confederate Army. He was in company E, 7th S.C. Infantry. Shortly after the War he migrated to Louisiana
