

John F. Cameron - private in Co H. 24th
S.C. Infantry War Between the States

In 1850 John L. Cameron owned land in F. F. valued at $19,000,

Robert G. Cameron owned land valued at $21,050

Also listed is a J. F. Cameron, ^{Private} in Little River Guard -

Edrington History of F. F. mentions R. Gregg Cameron who married a Feaster. They had seven sons and four daughters. James the eldest moved to Florida - John married Mrs. Hoffman, nee Robinson. J. Feaster Cameron was a man of education and refinement, a nobleman of the day.
He was Colonel of an Arkansas Regiment, was twice shot and left for dead. He was one of the best lawyers, a hero of many battles, that fell victim to our nation's curse, strong drink.
The second son Dr. Andrew S. Cameron, married Susan I. Arnette. Robert Cameron died during the early part of the war. Alex married daughter of James W. Young.
The eldest daughter married Henry Young.
The second " " Dr. Christopher Simonton Sarah married John Simonton.
The youngest daughter married Col. Le Macfie.

We have copy of Will of John Cameron dated Nov 16, 1816 - This might be the father of John M.

The will mentions sons Joseph, Robert, son daughters Nancy, Mary, Catherine, Jane Rebecca.

He mentions brothers Joseph and Andrew and Andrew's daughter Jane

We also have copy of will of Andrew W.
Cameron ^{dated 1898}. He mentions wife Jennet. Daughter Jew - who receives land granted to John Cameron, daughter Sarah + Delia son Alexander who receives land granted to Joseph Cameron Sr.

We also have copy of will of Joseph dated March 7, 1798 - He also mentions a John and a Joseph.