

John F. Cameron - private in Co H. 85th
S.C. Infantry war Between the States

In 1850 John L. Cameron owned land in F. & valued at $19000.

Robert F. Cameron owned land valued at $121,050

Also listed is a J. F. Cameron, in Little River Guard - <sup>private</sup>

Edington's history of F. F. mentions R. Gregg Cameron who married a Foster. They had seven sons and four daughters. James the eldest moved to Florida - John married Mrs. Hoffman, nee Robinson. J. Foster Cameron was a man of education and refinement, a nobleman of the day.
He was Colonel of an Arkansas regiment, was twice shot and left for dead. He was one of the best lawyers, a hero of many battles, that fell victim to an Native curse, strong drink.
The second son Dr. Andrew S. Cameron, married Susan L. Orneet, Robert Cameron died during the early part of the war. Alex Morris daughter of James W. Younger The eldest daughter married Henry Younger
The second " " Dr. Christopher Simonton
Sarah married John Simonton
The youngest daughter married Col Le Macfie

We have copy of will of John Cameron dated Nov 16, 1816 - This might be the father of John M.

The will mentions sons Joseph, Robert, Simon Daughters Nancy, Mary, Catherine, Jane Bessie.

He mentions brothers Joseph and Andrew and Andrew's daughter Jane

We also have copy of will of Andrew W.
Cameron. <sup>Dated 1808</sup> He mentions wife Isom - daughter Jean - who receives land granted to John Cameron, daughter Sarah + Delia son Alexander who receives land granted to Joseph Cameron Sr.

We also have copy of will of Joseph dated March 7, 1798 - He also mentions a John and a Joseph.