

Hartin, Miss Macie

Hartin, Reverend Hilliard

Campbell, Donald M.

XX.237o: Miscellaneous newspaper clippings

CAMPBELL-HARTIN

(April 1895)

The latest event in the social world of Ridgeway, was the marriage on Thursday evening of Miss Macie Hartin, daughter of Rev. Hilliard Hartin, of this place, to Mr. Donald Campbell, formerly of this place, but now of Sumter, S.C. The church was tastefully decorated with evergreens. Near the pulpit hung a handsome bell of evergreens and white flowers. At the appointed hour, the crowd, having been seated by the courteous ushers, Messrs. Cheves Ray and Frank Hinnant, awaited the arrival of the contracting parties.

To the soft and low strains of Schubert's wedding march vibrating to the skillful touch of Miss May Edmunds, entered Miss Ola Crumpton and Mr. Blake Boyd; Miss Sallie Hartin and Mr. O.F. McEachen, Miss Madge Burdell and Mr. Joseph Brown; Miss Leila Hogan and Archibald Campbell. Then came the bride on the arm of her maid of honor, Miss Marie Walker, who were met by the groom leaning on the arm of his best man, Mr. Samuel Hartin. Taking a position directly under the marriage bell they were made man and wife in a most impressive manner by the Rev. Jabez Ferris.

After the ceremony the principal actors and a few friends repaired to the home of the bride's father where a most sumptuous repast was served.

The bride and groom left for Sumter on the south-bound train.

The groom was a son of the late Dr. J.W. Campbell of this place.

The bride wore a handsome gown of cream cashmere, beautifully decorated with lace and ribbons, veil la tulle, bouquet of white roses and ferns.

Miss Marie Walker, of Camden, wore a stylish costume of bluetie mull, garniture of white ribbon and lace, flowers, white roses and ferns.

Miss Sallie Hartin and Leila Hogan, charming gowns of rose pink mull, white ribbon and lace, bouquet of calla lilies.

Misses Ola Crumpton and Madge Burdell, lovely robes of navy blue mull, white ribbon and laces, bouquet of white spirea and ferns.

The future home of the happy couple will be in Sumter.

Hartin, Miss Macie

Campbell, Donald M.

XX.237o: Miscellaneous newspaper clippings

A SAD, SAD DAY

(July 1895)

One evening only about sixty days ago we were receiving over the 'phone a description of the marriage ceremony of Miss Macie Hartin to Mr. Donald M. Campbell, both natives of Ridgeway – the ceremony being performed there. Now we are called upon to chronicle the sad death of the bride of that occasion. Mrs. Campbell and her husband moved at once to Sumter, their future home. Very soon after her marriage she was taken sick and death finally came. The remains were brought to Ridgeway and interred in the cemetery at that place on Monday, Rev. Jabez Ferris officiating. The funeral was largely attended and the community was deeply moved by the sad occurrence.

There has been no greater shock to the people of that place in a great while.

The pall-bearers officiating were: F.P. Hinnant, C.L. Wray, J.B. Bolick, Joseph Coleman, Ollever McEachern, and R.M. Bolick.

Thus ends what was hoped to be a long and happy married life. The earnest sympathy of the entire community go out to the afflicted families.