

Campbell, Dr. John W.

Williamson, Miss Sarah

XX.237o: Miscellaneous newspaper clippings

(February 1894)

DR. JOHN W. CAMPBELL

Dr. Jno. W. Campbell died at his home near Ridgeway, on Saturday, and his remains were interred at Aimwell Church, near Ridgeway, on Sunday. Dr. Campbell was a native of Fairfield County where he spent his whole life. He married Miss Sarah Williamson, who with seven children survive his death.

For thirty years the deceased was an elder of Aimwell Presbyterian Church of which he was a consistent member.

Dr. Campbell was Worshipful Master of the Masonic Lodge at Ridgeway for three terms, and was held in high esteem by the members of the craft. He was buried with Masonic honors and the following pass masters acted as pall bearers:

P.M. Spence, Jno. W. Seigler, Jas. Q. Davis, S.F. Cooper, Robert Lewis, Dr. Jno. Boyd.

Dr. Campbell was stricken with paralysis about one year ago and only partially recovered and it is thought this was the final cause of his death. He was a man of strong character, unswerving in matters of veracity, gentle in nature but firm in his convictions. Such a man is a great loss to the community, and to his family to whom he left a rich legacy in the memory of the life he lived.