Markers to Be Dedicated to Memory Dr. Carlisle & Dr. DuBose June 12th

Ceremonies for the dedication of markers in honor of two late South Carolinians will be held on Sunday, June 12, sponsored by the Fairfield County Historical Society.

The two Fairfield natives thus honored are William Porcher DuBose, author - theologian, and James H. Carlisle, eminent educator and outstanding religious leader.

Prior to the dedication of the markers, the Rev. Paul Hardin, D.D., of the Methodist Church, and the Rt. Rev. John A. Pinckney, D.D., of the Episcopal Church, both bishops of their respective church organizations in South Carolina, will address those attending the services at Bethel Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.

The marker in honor of Dr. Carlisle, which will be dedicated immediately after the services at the church, will be located at the E. D. Brice house, where he was born on May 24, 1825. The house is now occupied by the Misses Pauline, Zelma and Maurice Brice.

Dr. Carlisle, by-passing the freshman year, entered the sophomore class of South Carolina College and placed second in his class of 1844. Following graduation, he taught in the Odd Fellows' School (then in the Columbia Male Academy) for nine years, leaving there upon election to the original faculty of Wofford College in 1853.

He was elected president of Wofford in 1875, and served in this capacity until his resignation in 1902.

Known as "Wofford's beacon light," and called "the noblest Roman of them all" by his successor at Wofford, Dr. Henry Nelson Snyder, Dr. Carlisle died October 21, 1909. He is buried in Spartanburg.

The marker honoring Dr. DuBose will be unveiled at his birth site, near the corner of Main and College Streets.

Dr. DuBose was born in Winnsboro on April 11, 1836, and received his education at Mt. Zion Academy, The Citadel, The University of Virginia, and the Diocesan Seminary at Camden.

During the Civil War he served both as a line officer and as a chaplain in the Army of the Confederacy, was wounded three times, and taken prisoner by the Union forces.

His first marriage was to Nannie Peronneau of Charleston.

In 1873 he became chaplain of Fairmount School for Young Ladies, later married its founder, Mrs. Maria Louisa Yerger, and lived at the school after his retirement, with his daughters, Susie and May. The Misses DuBose succeeded their father in leadership of the school.

Dr. DuBose's contribution to the University of the South at Sewanee, Tenn., where he was chaplain, professor of Moral Science, and founder and dean of the School of Theology, was tremendous.

He died in 1918, and is buried at Sewanee.

1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem or issue that needs to be addressed. This involves gathering information and understanding the context of the situation.

1. The first of these is the fact that the United States has a large and growing population of people who are not citizens of the United States. This is a result of the large number of people who have been admitted to the United States as permanent residents, and the fact that many of these people have not yet become citizens.
