Box #1, pkg. #13: Bill of Complaint. Filed 26 Aug. 1816. STARK, Sol. FREDERICK HOGELL vs JOHN SMILEY & wife REBECCA, CHRISTOPHER STEPHEN HOGELL & DANIEL DEWALT.

Orator, FREDERICK HOGELL of Newberry Dist. Bill states that JOHN FREDERICK HOGELL, the grandfather of the orator FREDERICK HOGELL in the year 1776 owned a tract of land in the District of Newberry 300 acres on Cannon's Creek between Broad and Saluda Rivers bounded on E by vacant land laid out to ZIMMERMAN and on all other sides vacant.... was indebted to CURB and offered to contract with the above named STEPHEN HOGELL, he being the elder son and heir at law of the sd JOHN FREDERICK HOGELL to become the purchaser. STEPHEN refused to become purchaser of land and therefore preserve the patrimony in the family. Then the grandfather offered same tract to GEORGE HOGELL (the orator's father) and he became the purchaser and paid amount of the debt to CURB and delivered plat and grant to the orator's father in 1776. The Rev. War having "broke" out, the orator's father unfortunately for himself and his property took part vs his country and proceeded with a party of Royalists to Fort Augusta where he continued till his death in 1783. Shortly after GEO. HOGELL purchased the land, JNO. FREDERICK HOGELL died intestate, the land descended to STEPHEN HOGELL who also went off with a party of Royalists about the same time to St. Augustine from whence at close of war he removed to Nova Scotia where he has resided ever since. Orator is only child and heir of GEO. HOGELL and of right intituled to the land. DANIEL DEWALT, now dec'd., being in Halifax in sd province of Nova Scotia, and knowing of the orator's claim to the land, proposed to STEPHEN HOGELL to buy the same. STEPHEN then sold same to DANIEL DEWALT....shows that JOHN SMILEY & REBECCA his wife by virtue of a title by DANIEL DEWALT entered upon same land in Jan. 1812. REBECCA is daughter of DANIEL DEWALT.

GEO. GRAY, SR., as att'y. sold to Capt. JOHN SMYLEY, as a rep. and legatee of DANIEL DEWALT, dec'd., 200 acres of the land originally granted to JNO. FREDERICK HOGLE, 13 Sept. 1815. Wit: SIMON P. GRAY & BENJ. H. GRAY.

Power of att'y. from CHRISTOPHER HOGELL, late of 96 Dist., S. C. now of Halifax, Prov. of N. S., yeoman, appointed GEO. GRAY and WM. DAWKINS LANE (now or late of Newberry Dist.) to sell 6 Nov. 1787.
