

Information furnished by Cousin Mary Taylor Eubanks

General Edward (red) Taylor, married twice - first to Nancy Chapman.
Second wife Mary Williams from Pineoley (Breesley) Forte, Conn. (Am not sure which above word is right the writing was so cramped) no children

Edward M. married Charlotte Caroline Poole, child John married Mary Ann Lester. { several children, I could find out how many of you would like to know

Tom married Fanni Davis - 3 children

Wade married Anna Anderson, } didn't know any of their children

Sally married Raleigh Wood, lived in Columbia didn't know her children.

Lucy married Jim McKeon went to Alabama

Polly married Bill Edge and moved to Mississippi

Sallie married Bill Mabry and moved west.

Copied from ^{William} Edrington's History of Fairfield published in the News & Herald in installment in 1901

Edward (red) was general in the Militia

Edward Taylor of the Dark Corner of Fairfield

General Ed Taylor has been honored by his fellow citizens to every office he has asked for,
First Captain, then Mayor, then Colonel and lastly General of the state militia. He is still living (1901)