

Mrs. Wade Darrel Chappel

White, Chappel

9/3/98

Lou Ann White of Winnsboro and Wade Darrel Chappel of Simpson were united in marriage Saturday, Aug. 15, 1998 at The Embassy Suites Hotel in Columbia.

The 4 p.m. ceremony was performed by the Rev. Willie Bates Jr.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Daniel White, and her brother, John Garcia Manning.

She wore a long, formal bridal gown of white imported satin. The sheath-style gown, with a deep back slit, had long sleeves with peek-a-boo low appliques that came to a point at the wrist. The vee neckline was lavishly appliqued with silk venise lace and pearl beading. The low bodice featured a basque waist. The detachable train, with peek-a-boo low appliques and edged in lace, was topped by a large bow.

She carried a bouquet of white casablanca lillies.

Carrie White was maid of honor and Aisja Jones was matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Monica Gibson, Somber Lewis, Tichia Harris, Angela Kennedy, Krystal Seibles and Angie Sheppard.

Janria Robinson and Taquishia Thompson served as flower girls.

Shaquille Hall served as ring bearer.

Curtis Jones was best man. The groomsmen were Porter Able, Clarence Pauling, Kelly Craig, Albert Crier, Dexter Pauling, Carlos Robertson, Darrell Woodard and Zelos Young.

The hostesses were Lois Gore, Amber Lewis, Teresa Manning and Tonya Robinson. The ushers were Willie Qualls, Martell Whitaker and Kenny Young.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held at the Embassy Suites' ball room.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel White of Winnsboro.

She is a 1993 graduate of Fairfield Central High School and is presently a hairstylist at Hair Cuttery in Columbia.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wade T. Chappel of Simpson.

He is a 1989 graduate of Fairfield Central High School and is presently employed at the Hon Company in Winnsboro.

The couple will reside in Ridgeway.
