CHAPTER V

THE FAMILY OF LABAN CHAPPELL

Laban Chappell was the second son of Henry Chappell, and was born in Virginia about 1762. He came to South Carolina with his father, Henry Chappell, as a very small child. There is a commemorative marker in the churchyard at the "Old Brick Church" (Ebenezar ARP.) to Laban Chappell and some of the members of his family. Laban Chappell is buried on the family plantation near Jenkinsville.

Laban Chappell married the widow, Margaret Adams, whose maiden name was Spigner, in 1789. She was born in Germany on August 15, 1756, and came to South Carolina with her parents at the age of twelve years. She and her husband moved to Fairfield District in 1817, where she died on August 8, 1817, at the age of sixty-one years. Laban died in 1829 at the age of sixty-seven years.

Laban Chappell had 100 acres surveyed for him in Orangeburg District, Sandy River, by Benjamin Grubb, D.S. on September 5, 1791. He had 32 acres surveyed for him on Little River, Fairfield District by Samuel Alston, D. S., on December 23, 1818. This land was bound by the lands of Stephen Gibson, Augustine Williams, and John May. A month later, on January 30, 1819, Samuel Alston surveyed an additional 18 acres for him on a small branch of Broad River, and adjoining the previously surveyed 32 acres. The lands of Ainsley Hall and Edward Greg bound this land.

George Lightner; Jr. of Broad River, Fairfield District, on December 22, 1810, sold Laban Chappell of Cabben (sic) Branch, Richland District, 286 acres of land on Broad River for $3001. This land made up out of two tracts: part of 150 acres originally granted to John Frazier on June 7, 1751; and all of a tract of 150 acres originally granted to Ulric Busser. John Chappell and Augustin Williams witnessed the deed. Elizabeth Lightner signed a release of her dowry rights.3 On January 11, 1819, George Lightner (Jr.) sold Laban Chappell 264 acres of land on Little River for $1175. This land made up out of the whole of 100 acres granted Agnes Beaty (resurveyed to show 133 acres) and 131 acres out of an original tract of 155 acres granted to Edward McGraw on July 21, 1775. Samuel Alston and Mary Alston, Jr. were witnesses and Elizabeth (X) Lightner signed a release.*

William I. Agustin (sic) (Augustin) sold Laban Chappell 693 1/8 acres of land for $4116, on January 11, 1819. This land made up out of eight different tracts of land: 1) Part of 300 acres granted to Egerton Leigh on Demember 5, 1758; 2) part of 150 acres granted to William McWilliams on September 5, 1775; 3) part of 350 acres granted to John Martin in December, 1792; 4) part of 200 acres granted to Joseph Gibson on April 10, 1771; 5) part of 109 acres granted to David Thompson on July 4, 1795; 6) part of 100 acres granted Samuel McKee on May 7, 1774; 7) all of 50 acres granted to ______; 8) part of the land granted to David Wooten. Christian Freshley and S. L. Alston witnessed the deed. Lucy Agustin (Augustin) signed a release of her dowry rights. A mortgage of $3,513.33 1/3 remained on the place. It was paid off on November 13, 1825, to Samuel Brown who was acting for William I. Augustine, who had moved to Autuago County, Alabama. The plantation as a whole was bound on the east by Christian Freshley, William Watt, William Thompson, and Ainsley Hall; west on Ainsley Hall. Laban Chappell, and Edward Gregg.⁵

"The Tax Returns for Fairfield and other districts for 1822" showed Laban Chappell as the owner of 270 acres of land and 15 slaves in Fairfield District and 100 acres of land in Lexington District. The same record shows his daughter, Christiana as the owner of 220 acres of land and six slaves in Fairfield District; and his son, Laban H. Chappell, as the owner of 375 acres of land and three slaves in Fairfield District and 146 acres of land in Lexington District.6

Laban Chappell sold his son-in-law, Zachariah Trapp, 170 acres of land for $1,000 on June 9, 1827. This land was made up out of two original tracts of land: one was part of 150 acres that had originally been granted to Ulrich Busser on June 7, 1751; and all of a tract of 50 acres that had been granted to Casper Frytag (Friday) on May 18, 1751.

Laban Chappell, planter of Fairfield District, made his will on November 4, 1829.⁸ He declared himself to be "far advanced in years and laboring under a serious bodily affliction," but of sound mind. It was his wish that enough property, including his crop, gathered and still in the fields, a Negro boy and girl, and such other property as necessary to pay all his debts, be sold. To his son, John S. Chappell, he left the small tract of land containing 7 or 8 acres of land, in Richland District, lying between Cabbin (sic) and Cedar Creeks, and known as his summer home; also 100 acres on Sandy River, Lexington District; and the slaves: Sam, Small Moses, a girl named Fanny, and a small boy named Job. He also left his son, John, all of his bacon and confirmed the gift, made some years before, of the following slaves: Tony, Peter, Maggy, John, and Eliza.

To his son, Laban H. (Henry) Chappell, he left a tract of land containing 140 acres, and known as the Seitz and Ram land, lying on Broad River, in Lexington District. He also left his son, Laban Henry, his land in Fairfield District made up out of three parcels and bought of George Lightner, Jr., William I. Augustine, and Jacob Boney; except for 190 acres that he left to his daughter, Christiana Chappell. He left him the following slaves: Bob, Susy, Hannah, three children (Lavina, Lucina, and Tina), and an old woman, Lucy. He confirmed a gift of the following slaves, made some years previously: Phillip, Michall (sic) and Isaac.

To his daughter, Christiana Chappell, he left the previously mentioned 190 acres; the home place of 320 acres, one corner of which stood next to Livingston's blacksmith shop; 30 acres granted her on the west side of Little River; and the slaves: Ned, Phebe, and a boy named Abram. He confirmed a gift, made some years previously, of the following slaves: Jack, Pat, Gabriel and the boys, Ben and Saul.

To his daughter, Mary Trapp, he left the slave Robbin and his wife, Sarah; the slave Eliza and a small girl named Martha Ann. He confirmed a gift, made several years previously, of the following slaves: Tom, Ginny, Elijah, and Harriett.

⁸ Fairfield Will Book, Vol. 2, Book 12, p. 6; Fairfield Probate Court Records, Apt. 43, File 670, 1829.

THE CHILDREN OF LABAN AND MARGARET SPIGNER ADAMS CHAPPELL

I. Christiana Chappell, daughter of Laban and Margaret Spigner Chappell, born 1790, married Nathan Cook as his second wife on August 10, 1826. They had no children and she died on August 25, 1867.

II. John S. Chappell, son of Laban and Margaret Spigner Chappell, was born in 1794, married Grace (Gracey H.) Goodwyn of Richland District. They moved to Fairfield District in 1852. He died March 16, 1852 and she died January 26, 1864. John S. Chappell, of Richland District, made his will on June 14, 1851 and it was proven on November 1, 1853. (He had moved to Fairfield District before his death.) W. R. Howell, Joseph E. Reese, and James Campbell witnessed the will. His wife, Gracey H., was made sole executrix, and to her he left all of his estate during her lifetime to be divided among their children at her death.9

Gracey H. Chappell died intestate in Fairfield District during the year 1866. Abner Turnipseed (husband of her daughter Christianna) was made administrator of her estate on November 15, 1867. She had given away most of her property prior to her death. Living at the time of her death were the following children: Christianna, wife of Abner Turnipseed; Mary H., wife of Dr. Ira T. Smith; Martha, wife of E. R. Paulling (sic). Her daughter, Rebecca (Sarah) Bookman, had already died. 11

The children of John S. and Gracey Goodwyn Chappell:

- 1. Rebecca (Sarah) Chappell, born in 1814, married Jacob Bookman in 1834, and died on March 16, 1854. Children:
 - a. Oscar Bookman, killed in CSA.

⁹ Fairfield Probate Court, Apt. 102, File 477, 1853.

¹⁰ Notice the differences in dates as given in the official records as compared with those of Chappell's Genealogy.

¹¹ Tairfield Probate Court, Apt. 27, File 311.

- b. Victoria Bookman, married Uriah Trapp, died in 1897. Their children: Rebecca, Marion, Howell, and Challie Trapp.
- c. Marion Bookman married Joel Smith and they had a son, Joel.
- d. Eugenia Bookman married Elbridge Craig and their children were: Bookman, Alice, Pluma, Ruth, Robert, and Annie.
- e. Alice Bookman married Russell Black and their children were: Russell, Alice, and Iva.
 - f. Algernon Bookman married Mary Finley.
 - g. Weston Bookman did not marry.
- 2. Laban H. Chappell, Ordinance Sergeant for CoF, 12 S. C. Inf. Regt. CSA, was killed at Gaines Mill; he was not matried and died intestate. Abner Turnipseed was appointed his administrator. The warrant for appraisement of his estate, dated July 28, 1862, went to H. A. Glenn, (Dr.) Ira T. Smith, and John M. Glenn. His goods consisted of one gray mare worth $65; a saddle worth $18; a bridle worth $1.50; double barreled shotgun and fixtures worth $15; a violin and case worth $15; a silver watch worth $30; and an umbrella worth $1.12
- 3. Mary Hix Chappell, born in 1825, married Dr. Ira T. Smith in 1864 and died in 1888. No children. She was the second wife of Dr. Smith. In the cemetery of the Old Brick Church is this monument: Ira T. Smith, M.D., April 16, 1824—December 19, 1895. By his side is the grave of his first wife, Mary Aiken Sloan Smith, May 12, 1826—April 6, 1864. By their side is the grave of their son, F. M. Glenn Smith, September 27, 1853—August 29, 1861.
- 4. Christiana Chappell, born in 1831, married Abner Turnipseed in 1849. They moved to Fort Gaines, Georgia in 1870. Their children: Grace, Rebecca, Christiana, Margaret, Sally, Richard, Mary and Jesse.
- 5. Martha Chappell, born in 1834, married Edward R. Paulling in 1856. They moved to Orangeburg County. Children: Mary, Grace, Maud, and Hamilton.
- III. Mary Chappell, daughter of Laban and Margaret Spigner Chappell, was born in 1798 and married Zachariah Trapp in 1818. She died in 1875. Children:
 - 1. Chappell Trapp, born in 1818, married Adelaide Powell in 1853, died in 1875.

¹² Ibid., Apt. 16, File 125.

- 2. William Hix Trapp, born June 24, 1820 and died March 19,1905. His wife, Sarah Dawkins, was born May 18, 1824 and died May 30, 1908. They are buried in a cemetery on Frees Creek near Monticello. Their son, F. Dawkins Trapp was born in 1853, died in 1868, and is buried near-his parents.
- 3. Laban Trapp was born in 1823. He first married Mary Bouknight (sic) and secondly, Cynthia Powell. There is a letter of guardianship, dated March 3, 1856, appointing Laban Trapp as guardian of his three small children, B. W., E., and C. S. Trapp, so that they could receive a small legacy of $99.07 left them by T. C. Boughknight (presumably their grandfather). From this, it can be concluded that the children of Laban and Mary Bouknight Trapp were: B. W., E., and C. S. Trapp.¹³
- 4. Caroline Trapp was born in 1826 and married Jesse C. Lykes in 1848.¹⁴
- 5. Uriah C. Trapp was born in 1828 and married Victoria Bookman in 1855.
- 6. Mary Chappell Trapp died single, June 24, 1849, just five days before her father, at the age of 19 years, 1 month and 10 days. She must have been born about May 14, 1830.
- 7. Levi Trapp, the son of Zachariah and Mary Chappell Trapp, died intestate and apparently unmarried in Fairfield on June 13, 1857. His personal goods were sold for $1,824.20; and this sum was divided into six shares of $310.70 each. Each of the following received a share: C. O. (Chappell), W. H. (William Hix), L. H. (Laban H.), W. C., and M. C. (Mary Chappell, his mother) Trapp. 18

The Zachariah Trapp graveyard is near Alex. Robinson's old home between Crooked Run and Bethel Churches. Zachariah and his wife, Mary Chappell, are buried there. Zachariah Trapp died on June 29, 1849 at the age of 61 years, 10 months and 5 days; he must have been born on or about August 24, 1797. On his tombstone is the notation: "he bore severe discomfort with fortitude." His daughter, Mary Chappell Trapp, had died five days earlier: Their deaths coming so close together seems to have indicated an infectious disease, such as typhoid fever; on the other hand, ¹⁴ It will be remembered that Major Jesse C. Lykes had married Margaret Goodwyn Chappell, daughter of James Henry Chappell and granddaughter of Major Hicks Chappell.

Zachariah Trapp seems to have anticipated death when he made his will on June 15, 1849. In the same graveyard, there is a commemorative marker to "Uriah C. Trapp, CoC, 2nd S. C. Regt., C.S.A. There is a marker to "Little Ben," son of Uriah and Victoria Trapp.

Zachariah Trapp in his will on June 15, 1849, left a slave to each of his daughters, Caroline and Mary. He stipulated that his son, Levi, should continue at his trade; that his son, Uriah, should continue as overseer at a salary not to exceed $400 a year; that his plantation should provide for the support of his wife, Mary. Uriah was to continue his schooling for at least a year, or receive compensation equal to this year of schooling. His sons, C. O. (Chappell) and W. H. (William Hix) Trapp, were named his executors. 16 a

IV. Laban Henry Chappell, son of Laban and Margaret Spigner Adams Chappell, was born in 1800 and died on January 30, 1870 in Fairfield County. Much of this family's genealogy is contained in a large cenotaph erected in the cemetery of the "Old Brick Church" (Ebenezer) in Fairfield County, by Sarah Caroline (1847-1935), the youngest daughter of Laban Henry Chappell:

Laban Henry Chappell, 1800-1870.
His wife, Martha Ford Love, 1804-1883.
William L. Chappell, 1828-1876.
Martha Chappell, 1830-1883.
Henry H. Chappell, 1830-1862.
Warren Chappell, 1831-1832.
Thompson Chappell, 1832-1884.
George S. Chappell, 1834-1878.
Joel Chappell, 1835-1863.
Mary Ann Chappell, 1838-1897.
Margaret Chappell, 1840-1842.
Laban Hicks Chappell, 1841-1842.
David Hicks Chappell, 1845-1865.

Also within the Chappell enclosure are the following markers:

Lois Chappell, 1874-1964.

Mary (May?) Chappell, wife of F. H. McEachern, 1869-1955. Joseph Cook Chappell, son of Charles D. and Honore Chappell, 1887-1985. Served in World War I. Thompson Chappell, 1832-1884.

The family of Laban Henry Chappell is remarkable for the number of his sons that died in the Civil War.

Lt. Henry H. Chappell enlisted September 5, 1861 at Alston; elected 2nd Lieutenant, CoF, 12th S.C. Inf., CSA, on November 12, 1861 and died while on leave at home, Fairfield County, January 12, 1862. His brother, Thompson Chappell, was appointed administrator of his estate. A warrant for the appraisement of the goods of Henry H. Chappell was issued to N. B. Holley, Dr. J. M. Glenn, and Abner Turnipseed. The bond was signed on March 28, 1862, for $1,000. His goods were appraised on April 19, 1862 as follows: horse, $200; pistol belt and cartridges, $16; silver watch, $15; and a lot of books, $10. N. B. Holley bought his Hardee's Tactics for $1.18

Joel Chappell enlisted at Alston on September 6, 1861, CoF, 12th S. C. Inf., CSA. He was wounded on June 29, 1862 at Gaines Mill and given a thirty day furlough. He was wounded at Gettysburg July 1, 1863, taken prisoner, and died of his wounds.

Corporal David Hicks Chappell, also a member of CoF, 12th S. C. Inf., CSA, enlisted at Alston on September 5, 1861. He was wounded at Gettysburg on July I, 1863; suffered a gun-shot wound of left thigh on September 8, 1863, and was furloughed September 8, 1863. He was killed in the battle of Five Forks.

¹⁸ Fairfield Probate Court, Apt. 13 (new), File 93.

¹⁷ I know of no reason why Hix Chappell, Brother of Laban and Robert, and who saw considerable service in the Revolutionary War was not included, except that he lived in Richland County.

George S. Chappell enlisted at Alston on September 6, 1861 and was captured at Gettysburg on July 4, 1863.19

Of the four brothers, only George survived the Civil War. I don't know whether Thompson Chappell served in the Confederate States Army, or not.

Laban Chappell, son of Henry Chappell, saw considerable service in the Revolutionary War. He was on duty in Charleston when that city fell to the British and was one of the signers of a petition to General Lincoln asking that a flag be sent out to the British. Major Robert Lyell certified as to his service under Colonel Robert Goodwyn from March 20 to May 25, 1780 (62 days) in Charleston. In 1781, he served 110 days from February 20 to June 10, 1781, as a horseman in the militia under Colonel Thomas Taylor. Later in 1781, he served 34 days, November 16 to December 20, at Orangeburg under Captain William Goodwyn. In 1782, he served 30 days, April 1 to May 1, under Lt. Robert Howell at Orangeburg. He made a claim for 176 pounds current money, or 25 pounds, 2 shillings and 10¼ pence, sterling.²⁰
