

Amos Coleman

BLAIR - Amos Coleman, 88, died Sunday, Dec. 12.

Services conducted by the Rev. Cliff Dye were held December 18 at Purity Baptist Church with burial in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were cousins and friends. Floral bearers were cousins and friends.

Born May 14, 1911 in Fairfield County, he was the son of the late Andy and Charlotte Washington Coleman.

Mr. Coleman was a veteran of World War II, and earned the Purple Heart. He was a member of Purity Baptist Church.

Surviving are two sisters, Bessie Winn of Baltimore and Ruby Worthy of Blair; three nephews, Julian Brevard of Upper Marlboro, MD, Freddie Brevard of Tarboro, NC, and Hennies McConnell of Anchorage, Alaska; and two nieces, Beatrice Mitchell of Union and Shirley Tate of Charlotte.

Russell-McCutchen Funeral Home of Winnsboro was in charge of the arrangements.

HERALD INQ. 12/23/99