

Bill Chisolm Coleman

BLAIR - Bill Chisolm Coleman, 67, died Friday, Nov. 22, 1996.

Services conducted by the Rev. Mark Monroe were held on Tuesday, Nov. 26, 1996, at Hassion Hill Baptist Church.

Born in Blair on October 19, 1929, he was the son of Sara Essie Crosby Coleman and the late Chisolm Coleman. He attended public schools of Fairfield County and was a member of Hassion Hill Baptist Church. Mr. Coleman was retired from Fluor Daniel Construction Co. of Jenkinsville.

Survivors include his mother of the home; four daughters, Shirley Johnson of Blair, Frances Cheek of Union and Ernestine Coleman and Stacy Crosby of Carlisle; five sons, Spencer Coleman of Newberry, Sherman Coleman of Shelton, Sylvester Coleman of Chester, Michael Coleman of the home, and Jesse Coleman Brice of Lancaster; four sisters, Sara Brice of Blair, Mary Coleman of Washington, D.C., Janie Martin of West Columbia and Marie Parker of Springfield, Mass.; and one brother, Adolphus Wallace of Chester.

Russell-McCutchen Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. 12/12/96