

Bobby Alan Coleman

CHARLOTTE, NC - Bobby Alan Coleman, 40, died Saturday, April 29.

Services conducted by the Rev. Al Almodovar were held Friday, May 5 at Beasley Chapel. Burial followed in the private cemetery.

Pallbearers were nephews.

Born July 11, 1959, he was the son of the late Nora Bel Coleman and Henry Gladney. He was a native of Winnsboro.

Mr. Coleman was a landscaper and was an Army veteran.

Surviving are his wife, Jamie

Coleman of Charlotte; two step-daughters, Manchelle and Tawanna; two step-sons, Cory and Jody, all of Charlotte; sisters, Bertha Gram, Mattie Brannon, and Mamie Barber of New York City, Hattie Stevenson, Vernell, Sandra and JoAnn Coleman, all of Winnsboro; brothers, Fredrick of New York, Eugene Coleman of Charlotte, and Larry Coleman of Winnsboro.

Beasley's Funeral Home of Charlotte and Gibson's Funeral Home of Winnsboro were in charge of the arrangements.