

Charles Edward Coleman

BLAIR - Charles Edward Coleman, 77, died Thursday, March 8.

Funeral services were held Sunday, March 11 at Weeping Mary Baptist Church in Blair, conducted by the Rev. Jerome Boyd.

Honorary pallbearers were trustees and deacons of the church. Active pallbearers were nephews. Honorary floral bearers were members of the missionary society of the church. Active floral bearers were nieces.

A native of Fairfield County, he was born Nov. 18, 1923, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Simon and Daisy Shelton Coleman.

He was a retired truck driver, and was a US Army veteran of World War Two. He was a member of Weeping Mary Baptist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Carrie Elizabeth Phillips-Coleman; a sister-in-law Louise Coleman; a "play" sister, Elizabeth Herton of Cleveland, Ohio; brothers-in-law, William R. Phillips of Blair, and James R. Phillips of Los Angeles, CA. nephews, Charlie Mack and Steve Thompson, both of Blair, Walter Thompson of Chester, Ronald Coleman of Snellville, GA, Ricky Coleman of Hendersonville, NC and Michael Coleman of Lithonia, GA; nieces, Robena Coleman Allen of Atlanta, GA, Ruby Rivers of Hendersonville, NC, Venetta L. Coleman-Scott of New York; and a host of cousins and other relatives and friends.

Russell-McCutchen Funeral Home of Winnsboro was in charge of the arrangements.

HERALD IND 03/22-2001