

Mrs. Christopher Lee Corley

8/26/96

Coleman-Corley wed

Sharon Denise Coleman and Christopher Lee Gunter Corley were united in marriage on August 3, 1996, in Trinity United Methodist Church. The Rev. Aaron K. Price officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Linda Rutland Coleman and Roger Ladonne Coleman of Winnsboro. Grandparents are Leonard A. Rutland and the late Dorothy Rutland and Frankie and Vernie Coleman, all of Winnsboro.

The bridegroom is the son of Larry M. and Mary M. Corley of Blythewood. Grandparents are Jennie and Odell Martin of Blythewood and Elizabeth D. Corley of Irmo.

The wedding music was presented by Marion Sprott, pianist; and Joye Cameron, Ginny Gainey and Bill Grant, vocalists.

The bride, given in marriage by her maternal grandfather, wore a white, floor-length gown handmade by Sondra Pearson. It featured a bodice fashioned of Alencon lace accented with iridescent sequins and pearls, over matte satin, and a sweetheart neckline with short, pouf sleeves of Alencon lace. The tapered skirt featured appliques of Alencon lace motifs, with the back hemline slit also edged in matching lace. The chapel-length, detachable train was edged in matching Alencon lace. Her elbow-length, three tiered veil of silk illusion edged in pearls, was attached to a sequin and pearl headpiece. She carried a bouquet of white roses and gerber daisies.

Letitia F. Watts, of Winnsboro, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Rebekah D. Justice of Winnsboro, Mikki Corley Gay of Lexington, Catherine Alexander and Erin Cone of Walterboro, and Gina Deese of Blythewood. Amber Nichols of Winnsboro was flower girl.

Larry Corley served his son as best man. The groomsmen were Kevin Coleman and Phil McNair of Columbia, Daniel Houser of Vale, N.C., Chris Jolly of West Columbia, and Tony Crout and Jerome Moseley of Blythewood. Jonathan Watts of Winnsboro was ring bearer.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the church fellowship hall.

The bride graduated from The University of South Carolina-Aiken. She is employed as a first grade teacher at Fairfield Primary School, Winnsboro.

The bridegroom graduated from Western Carolina University. He is employed with Blythewood Works in
