Today I had a nice phone chat with Eddie, explaining to him that I could not interpret my DNA. I am researching the Colemans of your area, and Eddie will help me on that; but, I was wondering if my DNA test through Family Tree Maker would be of any help. My mother was a Coleman, so if it concentrates on both mother and father, it seems I would be getting some Coleman hits.

I gave Eddie the information to look at my tree on Ancestry.com. I am sure that there are mistakes with the first Robert Coleman, since there were at least four coming into Virginia in the mid 1600's. My G G grandfather was James Buchanan Coleman of Ridgeway (Century House), and I have quite a bit of information on that family. His father was Charles, and Charles's father was Kadar. Kadar's father was Robert from NC.

I would appreciate hearing from you when you have time. In the meantime, perhaps you can glance at my Ancestry.com tree, Carroll Family Tree. I just made it public tonight so that it may help you.

Thank you so much for giving your time to this worthwhile project!

Subject: Coleman family research: Attention Eddie

After speaking with you, Eddie, I wish to renew my request for help on my Coleman Line. I do realize how busy you all are! Please help me as you can, and I will also be working on the line at home.

Eddie and I agreed that we have some information to go on, but I really do want to get to the first Colemans of my line.

Beginning with James Buchanan Coleman's father, Charles Coleman b.1762 VA, occupation blacksmith, married before 1787 to Ruth Gibson, daughter of Abraham Gibson (had brother Rev. Jacob Gibson-Gibson's Meeting House, mentioned in Col. Winn's notes. Charles's first wife Elizabeth died 1825 (She was our ancestor), and he remarried 2nd time to Elizabeth (Eliza) . There are conflictin places of our Charles Coleman's place of death... Fairfield Co or perhaps Alabama on 6 Apr.1842.

Charles Coleman's father, Kadar Coleman b.1736 Virginia m.5 Apr.1764 to Susannah Stephenson in Edgecombe Co. NC (I have a list of Kadar's sibblings. One was Robert IV who came to Fairfield/Camden Dist. with Kadar. Land records show that bro Robt. decided to go back to NC or VA and sold his property to Kadar. Those land records Robert Coleman III 's will , 1761,shows land he gave to his son Kadar (NC Archives SS 875/345 Will Book D p.276 , A p. 29) Kadar and Robt.IV must have sold land to come to Fairfield Co, since Robt II's land was divided among his wife and 12 children.

<http://files.usgwarchives.net/nc/edgecombe/wills/coleman2548wl.txt>

Kadar's father was Robert Coleman III , Edgecombe Co. Will above.

Please try this website! He has used some of Gov. Coleman's info and also some others. This Wes Coleman sounds like the best research for my line. The Colemans who intermarried and used the same names really do complicate the research!

<http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~nansemondcolemans/>

Robert II or Jr. and Robert Ist or SR Nansemond Co. NC

Let's work on this together, Eddie. Please get any other Colemans involved too! This family goes way back to near Jamestown. There were about 4 Robert Colemans who came into Virginia in mie 1600's. Thank you so much for your interest!!! Will contact someone about my DNA, and I HOPE you get my Ancestry Tree...Carroll Family Tree, JBLC69.
