

17

137

Dr W P Coleman

Last will

Record in letter S

Volume No 20

Page - 212

Filed 16th March 1863

James Johnston

O.S.D

The last will and testament of William Preston Coleman

I William Preston Coleman
of the District of Fairfield and state of South Carolina, being of sound mind do make ordain and publish, The following as my last will and testament, viz It is my will that my executor herein after named, to pay all my Just debts funeral expenses as soon after my death, as conveniently can be done and if necessary to sell property for the said purpose, after the payment of debts and expenses, the balance of my property both real and personal, I give
and bequeath to my beloved wife Jane Coleman, to her and her heirs forever. I do hereby ordain nominate

and bequeath to my beloved wife
Jane Coleman, to her and her heirs
forever, I do hereby ordain nominate and constitute, Jacob Feastu (my maternal uncle) to carry out and execute this my last will, allowing him five per cent, for his trouble in executing the same, In witness whereof
I have hereunto set my hand and seal

This 10th day of December A.D. 1861.

Signed sealed published & declared by the above named } W.P. Coleman William Weston Coleman to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses in the presence of the testator.

Wesley Mayfield }
H. A. Coleman Jr }
W. Woodward, Clerk }

The last will and testament of William Denton Coleman

I William Denton Coleman
of the District of Fairfield and State of South Carolina being of sound mind
do make ordain and publish the following as my last will and testament, 1861
It is my will that my executor herein
after named, to pay all my just debts
funeral expenses as soon after my
death as conveniently can be done and it is necessary to sell property for said purpose, after the payment of all said expenses, the balance of my property both real and personal, I give
and bequeath to my beloved wife
Jane Coleman to her and her heirs
forever, I do hereby ordain nominate and constitute Jacob Treaste my maternal uncle to carry out and execute
this my last will, allowing him
five per cent, for his trouble in
executing the same, in witness whereof
I have hereunto set my hand and seal
This 10th day of December A. D. 1861

Signed sealed published & declared by the above named } W. Coleman William Denton Coleman to be } his last will and testament in the presence of
us who have hereunto subscribed our names as
witnesses in the presence of the testator.

Wesley Maupfield

J. C. Coleman

W. Woodward, Esq.

17
187
of W. D. Coleman
last will