

Jorice Stone Cook

COLUMBIA - Jorice Stone Cook, 55, died Saturday, June 3.

Services conducted by the Rev. C. Jones and the Rev. L. Thompson were held Saturday, June 10 at St. Matthews Baptist Church. Burial followed in the Fairfield Community cemetery; Pallbearers were nephews.

Born July 4, 1945, she was the daughter of Jessie Farrow Stone and the late Gary Stone.

She was a packer at the State Farmers Market and was a member of St. Matthews Baptist Church #2.

Surviving are two daughters, Mary Bell and Ruby Wallington of Columbia; her mother of Blair; five sisters, Frances Pearson, and Dollie Thompson, both of Jenkinsville; Annie Davis of Newark, NJ, Rosa Jeanjacques of New Orleans, LA, and Carolyn Lazarus of Columbia; two brothers, Gary Stone of Newark, NJ and Micheal Stone of Blair; four grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Gibson's Funeral Services was in charge of the arrangements.

HERALD IND. 06-15-2000