

Cook gets scholarship

Raushanah Cook, a biology education major at South Carolina State University, has received a scholarship from the Richland/Lexington Chapter of the South Carolina State Employees Association for an outstanding essay and community involvement.

Cook has also received the Presidential Award for having a grade point average between a 3.0 and 3.4. Cook is also an active member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. and the NAACP.

She is the daughter of Bernice and Claude E. Cook of Winnsboro.

Raushanah Cook